Shell Brand License extension to 31 December 2029

Viva Energy (the Company) today announced that it has agreed with Shell Brands International AG (Shell) to extend its license of the Shell brand on retail automotive fuels in Australia, until 31 December 2029 (Shell Brand License).

The extension of the Shell Brand License is on substantially the same commercial terms as the existing agreement.

CEO of Viva Energy, Mr Scott Wyatt, said “Viva Energy has long history as the custodian of the Shell brand on retail automotive fuels in Australia, and we are excited and proud to continue that history. The Shell brand is one of the world’s most recognisable brands, and we continue to see its strong value in Australia.”

The extension of the license is effective 1 January 2020.
