

AUSSIE BROADBAND LIMITED
ACN 132 090 192

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Board is responsible for establishing Aussie Broadband Limited's (Company) corporate governance framework, the key features of which are set out below. In establishing its corporate governance framework, the Board has referred to the 4th edition of the ASX Corporate Governance Councils' Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (ASX Recommendations).

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 1.1 Condition 16, the corporate governance statement discloses the extent to which the Company follows the ASX Recommendations. The Company will follow each ASX Recommendation where the Board has considered the ASX Recommendation to be an appropriate benchmark for its corporate governance practices. Where the Company's corporate governance practices will follow an ASX Recommendation, the Board has made appropriate statements reporting on the adoption of the ASX Recommendation. In compliance with the "if not, why not" reporting regime, where, after due consideration, the Company's corporate governance practices will not follow an ASX Recommendation, the Board has explained its reasons for not following the ASX Recommendation and disclosed what, if any, alternative practices the Company will adopt instead of those in the ASX Recommendation.

The following governance-related documents can be found on the Company's website at www.aussiebroadband.com.au:

- (a) Board Charter;
- (b) Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee Charter;
- (c) People and Community Committee Charter;
- (d) Code of Conduct;
- (e) Statement of Values;
- (f) Securities Trading Policy;
- (g) Continuous Disclosure Policy;
- (h) Occupational Health and Safety Policy;
- (i) Gifts, Entertainment and Anti-Bribery Policy; and
- (j) Whistleblower Policy.

The statement has been approved by the Board and is current as at 15 October 2020.

ASX RecommendationCompliance by the Company*Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

- 1.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out:
- (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and
 - (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.

The Company complies with this recommendation.

The Company has established the respective roles and responsibilities of its Board and management, and those matters expressly reserved for the Board and those delegated to management, and has documented these roles and responsibilities in its Board Charter.

The responsibilities of the Board include (without limitation) to:

- represent and serve the interests of shareholders by overseeing and appraising the Company's strategies, policies and performance;
- optimise the Company's performance to build sustainable values for shareholders;
- review the Company's compliance with the Company's "why" (i.e. the Company's mission and purpose), values and its governance framework; and
- ensure that shareholders are kept informed of the Company's performance.

In exercising its responsibilities, the Board recognises that there are many stakeholders in the operations of the Company, including employees, shareholders, the government and the community.

The Board has delegated responsibility for the day-to-day business operations of the Company to the Managing Director. The management team, led by the Managing Director, is accountable to the Board.

Matters expressly reserved for the Board are set out in the Board Charter.

ASX Recommendation	Compliance by the Company
1.2 A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and(b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	The Company will comply with this recommendation. The Company undertakes appropriate checks before appointing a person or putting forward to shareholders a candidate for election as a director and provides shareholders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect a director.
1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company complies with this recommendation. The Company has a written agreement with each of the Directors and senior executives setting out the terms of his or her appointment.
1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	The Company complies with this recommendation. The Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board. The Company Secretary is responsible for coordination of all Board business, including agendas, board papers, minutes, communication with regulatory bodies and ASX, and all statutory and other filings.
1.5 A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) have and disclose a diversity policy;(b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and(c) disclose in relation to each reporting period:	The Company does not comply with this recommendation. As at the date of the Company's admission to the ASX (Listing), the Company does not have a diversity policy in place. The Company's view is that inclusion should be driven by culture (we want to) rather than by policy (we have to). In this regard, inclusion and diversity are embedded in the Company's culture stemming from two of its values: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• be good to people; and• no bullshit.

2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	The Company does not comply with this recommendation. As at the date of Listing, the Board will not comprise a majority of independent Directors. However, the Company considers that the current composition of the Board is suitable for the Company given its resources, size and operations. In particular, the current size and composition of the Board has been determined having regard to the operations and skill set of the Directors both individually and collectively, and the best interest of Shareholders.
2.5 The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	The Company complies with this recommendation. Adrian Fitzpatrick, the Chair of the Board, is an independent Director and is not the same person as the Chief Executive Officer / Managing Director.
2.6 A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	The Company complies/will comply with this recommendation. The People and Community Committee Charter requires that the committee be responsible for ensuring that there is an induction program in place for Directors, ensuring processes are in place for providing continuing professional development opportunities for Directors and regulatory reviewing the effectiveness of such opportunities and maintaining development programs to support the Company's performance and culture.

Principle 3 – Instil a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly

3.1 A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values.

The Company complies with this recommendation.

As disclosed in the Prospectus, in order to reinforce the Company's values which underpin how the Company undertakes its business, it has adopted a Statement of Values. The Statement of Values outlines the norms and behaviours expected of the Company's Directors, senior leaders, staff and those who the Company seeks to work with. The Company's core values and behaviours are:

- Don't be ordinary, be awesome - We always strive to go above and beyond what is expected, even if it's just injecting an element of humour where appropriate, or spending the extra time to make sure our customers are happy.
- Think big - If someone tells us something can't be done, that's when we do our best work. We do things differently and we question the status quo. Just because something has always been done that way, does it have to stay like that?
- No bullshit - We don't bullshit our customers. We tell it to them straight, even though it may be news that they don't want to hear or we don't want to tell them. We don't sell them things that they don't need and we take ownership when we are in the wrong. We are human and it's alright to make mistakes if we clean them up and don't repeat them.
- Be good to people - Above all, this company is a family for both our staff and our customers. Family is important, whether you have just joined or whether you have been here from the start. We treat each other with respect and we are good people because it is the right thing to do, not because it is a selling point.
- Have fun - At Aussie Broadband, we love a joke, we banter and we are playful with our customers where appropriate. Belly laughs happen a lot. We

It is therefore the Chair's responsibility to demand a poll for all substantive resolutions at a Shareholders meeting.
6.5 A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	The Company complies with this recommendation. Shareholders are given the option to receive communications from, and send communications to the Company and its share registry electronically. To ensure that Shareholders can obtain all relevant information to assist them in exercising their rights as Shareholders, the Company's website provides information about how Shareholders may elect to receive and send information to the Company electronically.

Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk

7.1 The board of a listed entity should:

(a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which:

- (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and
- (ii) is chaired by an independent director,

and disclose:

- (iii) the charter of the committee;
 - (iv) the members of the committee; and
 - (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or
- (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.

The Company complies with this recommendation.

The Company has established an Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee. The Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities for corporate governance and oversight of the Company's financial and corporate reporting, risk management and compliance structures and external functions.

As at the date of Listing, the Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee comprises four directors, being:

- Vicky Papachristos (chair);
- Richard Dammary;
- Patrick Greene; and
- Adrian Fitzpatrick.

The Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee comprises an independent Chair (who is not the Chair of the Board), a total of four members, all of whom are Non-Executive Directors and a majority of whom are independent Directors.

The relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee are set out in section 6.1 of the Prospectus.

The Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee Charter sets out:

- the composition of the Committee, including that the Committee should comprise:
 - only Non-Executive Directors;

Principle 8 – Remunerate fairly and responsibly

- 8.1 The board of a listed entity should:
- (a) have a remuneration committee which:
 - (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and
 - (ii) is chaired by an independent director,
 and disclose:
 - (iii) the charter of the committee;
 - (iv) the members of the committee; and
 - (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or
 - (b) if it does not have a remuneration committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for setting the level and composition of remuneration for directors and senior executives and ensuring that such remuneration is appropriate and not excessive.

The Company complies with this recommendation.

The Company has established a People and Community Committee to perform the role ordinarily assumed by a remuneration committee.

The role of the People and Community Committee is to provide advice and assistance to the Board on the Company's people and community activities including making recommendations to the Board on remuneration packages and policies in respect of Directors and senior executives of the Company.

As at the date of Listing, the People and Community Committee comprises four directors, being:

- Richard Dammery (Chair);
- Adrian Fitzpatrick;
- Patrick Greene; and
- Vicky Papachristos.

The People and Community Committee contains a majority of independent Directors and is chaired by an independent Director.

The People and Community Committee Charter also sets out the required composition of the Committee, including that the Committee should comprise:

- a minimum of three members; and
- an independent Director of the Company as Chair.
