Dear Todd

Red Sky Energy Limited (ASX: ROG) - Request for Two (2) Consecutive Trading Halts

Pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 17.1, Red Sky Energy Limited (Company) requests that the ASX grants two (2) consecutive trading halts (total of up to four (4) days) with respect to the Company's quoted securities.

The two (2) consecutive trading halts are requested pending an announcement to be made by the Company to the market in connection with considering, planning and executing a material capital raising ("purpose").

The proposed capital raising, which is the purpose for the request, is being conducted in conjunction with an acquisition of resources and development tenure.

In accordance with Listing Rule 17.1, the Company provides the following information in relation to the request:

1. The two (2) consecutive trading halts are necessary to assist the Company in managing its continuous disclosure obligations as the Company expects to make a material announcement to the market for the stated purpose.
2. The Company requests that the two (2) consecutive trading halts remains in place until the earlier of commencement of normal trading on Friday 6 November 2020 or when the announcement regarding the purpose is released to the market.
3. The Company expects to make the announcement to the market before the commencement of normal trading on Friday 6 November 2020.
4. The Company is not aware of any reason why the two (2) consecutive trading halts should not be granted or of any further information necessary to inform the market about the two (2) consecutive trading halts.

Please contact me if you require any further information concerning this matter.

With the authority of the Board.

Yours sincerely

Mr Adrien Wing
Director and Company Secretary
