Directors announced an interim dividend of 10.5 cents per share, fully franked. This dividend has a record date of 25 February 2021 and will be paid on 11 March 2021.

The Board expects to continue its policy of paying shareholders in the order of 50% of our full year profits as dividends, and shareholders will continue to be rewarded for the strong performance of the company.

Chief Executive, Donald McGurk, said, "I am pleased to announce that our strategy to strengthen and invest in our core business through innovation and geographical expansion continues to deliver exceptional results."

"The strong performance was driven primarily by our metal detection business, with significant growth across both gold and recreational markets."

Cash generation was excellent, resulting in a net cash position of $111 million at 31 December 2020. Our strategy to invest in production capacity to meet demand has seen an increase in inventory during the period. Over the coming months, we expect inventory levels to further increase, which will serve three purposes:

- 1) Ensure we can meet the continued high level of demand for our metal detectors;
- 2) Minimise air freight expense, by maximising sea freight; and
- 3) Mitigate the risk of any production challenges posed by the pandemic

Performance by business unit:

Metal Detection – Recreational, Gold Mining and Countermine

Minelab is the world leader in handheld metal detecting technologies for the recreational, gold mining, demining and military markets. Over the last 30 years, Minelab has introduced more innovations than any of its competitors and has taken the metal detection industry to new levels of technological excellence.

Minelab delivered another record first half, with sales increasing 55% to $155 million. The growth in recreational and artisanal gold mining sales were due to our ongoing geographical expansion, investment in our distribution channels and new product innovations. The unique and distinctive technology embedded within our metal detectors underpins the success of this business. We are particularly pleased with the further diversification of our sales revenue, with our products now achieving market leadership at each key price point.

Minelab recently introduced the new GPX 6000, which includes our latest GeoSense-PI (Pulse Induction) technology. This technology automatically tracks and removes unwanted ground noise, providing an easy to use, light weight and high performance machine. This product will be released to the market in significant volume from Q4 of this financial year.

We continue to observe strong demand for our metal detectors with January achieving an all-time record level of sales.

Communications – Tactical and Critical Communications (Previously known as LMR)

Codan Communications designs and manufactures mission-critical communications equipment for global military and public safety applications. Its solutions allow customers to save lives, enhance security and support peacekeeping activities worldwide.

As expected, Codan Communications sales reduced over the same period last year. The majority of the $33 million reduction was due to the combination of delays in closing Tactical Communications sales opportunities as a direct result of reduced travel, deferred government programs, and increased timing uncertainty associated with major project deliveries due to the pandemic. While new business development activities have been impacted by these factors, we entered January with a significant order book of $40 million and as a result we will deliver a stronger performance in the second half.

The recent acquisition of DTC is consistent with Codan's well publicised strategic growth plan for our Tactical Communications business, which is focussed on providing total communications solutions by transitioning from a traditional voice platform via the addition of data and video communications. This acquisition fills a capability gap and will also enable us to leverage Codan's global distribution channels into the developing world. Importantly this transaction will be accretive for Codan's shareholders from the outset.

Critical Communications recorded a strong first half result, by transitioning into larger systems projects supplemented by our CodanCare service and support product to our existing installed customer base. Critical Communication's customers predominantly reside in North America and as such, travel and the ability to close sales have been less affected during the period.

Despite the challenges experienced in the first half and the continued uncertainty with international travel restrictions, the Board expects Communications to deliver a strong second half, with full year sales in the range of $80 to $90 million.

We continue to transition the Communications division from a product-centric business to a complete solutions provider. Codan's ongoing product development is being complemented by strategic partnerships with key suppliers, such as tactical VHF and interoperability, in order to further broaden our solutions offering.

Tracking Solutions - Minetec

Minetec provides unique, high-precision tracking, productivity and safety solutions for underground hard-rock mines. Minetec's technology allows real-time monitoring and control of mining operations in order to optimise productivity and enhance safety. It is an enabling technology required for mining automation.

We continue to work closely with Caterpillar in order to gain access to more mine sites. Progress has been made in turning the business around and it is now operating at a slight profit. More time is required to substantially build the sales pipeline in conjunction with Caterpillar to achieve meaningful scale.

Outlook

Whilst it is too early to determine if our traditional second-half weighting of sales will occur this year, there are a number of factors that are relevant when considering the outlook for FY21:

- As recently announced, we expect to settle the DTC transaction by end of April 2021 and commence integrating this new technology business within Tactical Communications;
- Demand for our metal detection products remains strong, with January achieving $35 million in sales;
- The new GPX6000 gold detector has been very well received, with meaningful sales expected from Q4; and
- The Communications business enters the second half with a strong order book.

The Board is not in a position to provide full year profit guidance at this point; however, we will continue to keep shareholders updated as the year progresses.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Review of the Interim Financial Report

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the Interim Financial Report based on our review. ASRE 2410 requires us to conclude whether we have become aware of any matter that makes us believe that the Interim Financial Report does not comply with the Corporations Act 2001 including giving a true and fair view of the Group's financial position as at 31 December 2020 and its performance for the Half-Year ended on that date, and complying with Australian Accounting Standard AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

A review of an Interim Financial Report consists of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.
