Our Competitive Advantage

Regulated vs Unregulated Credit

Regulated

We operate within:

- ✓ National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (National Credit Act)
- ✓ Credit Licensing: Responsible Lending Conduct (RG209)
- ✓ Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act)
- ✓ Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988 (FTR Act)
- ✓ State-based Pawnbroking and Secondhand Dealers Act

With oversight by:

- ✓ Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC)
- ✓ Australian Transaction Reports & analysis Centre (AUSTRAC)
- ✓ State & Territory Police

Resulting in:

- ✓ Credit pricing determined and capped by the appropriate legislative frameworks
- ✓ Comprehensive assessing procedures, like a mortgage application
- ✓ Over 70% of loan applications being declined based on unsuitability

Unregulated

Buy-Now-Pay-Later

Loan Book Provision Commentary

- Cautious assessment of expected credit loss provision includes assessment for accounts reported in hardship and a prudent macro-economic outlook
- Focus on growing loan books with improving credit quality.
- Interest and fees earned on personal and vehicle finance declined in-line with reduced origination volumes on prior period with the impact to EBITDA mitigated by the significant reduction in net bad debt expense.

Outlook

Cash Converters has observed early signs of recovery in the Australian market, with demand for credit and consumer sentiment improving. This is the perfect environment for Cash Converters to continue towards its strategic objectives, focusing throughout FY21 and beyond, on the key pillars of network expansion, product development and operational excellence.

Australian Network Expansion

- Greenfield location development in under-represented States (NSW, QLD and VIC).
- Continued disciplined acquisition of franchise stores to expand corporate presence within network.
- Continued development of 'hub & spoke' operating model concept.

Product Development

- Continued development of new, non-SACC, products to enrich customer options.
- Renewed customer data analysis and insights generation to inform business needs and direction.
- Accelerate direct-to-consumer vehicle financing business.

Operational Excellence

- Deliver collections insourcing to enhance customer value proposition and optimise recovery yields.
- Continue to progress strategic funding plan.
- Utilise substantial franking credits, return to paying a sustainable dividend.
