3.7 No giving "tips"

The prohibition on Insider Trading cannot be avoided by arranging for a family member or friend of a person to deal in Securities, nor may "tips" concerning Inside Information relating to the Company be given to others.

4. Securities Trading

4.1 Trading windows and Prohibited Periods

For the purposes of this policy, the following periods will be 'Trading Windows' during which Staff may Trade, subject at all times to this policy, in particular clause 4.2:

- (a) the 4 week period beginning on the first trading day after the Company's half yearly results are announced to ASX;
- (b) the 4 week period beginning on the first trading day after the Company's annual results are announced to ASX;
- (c) the 2 week period beginning on the first trading day after the Company's annual general meeting;
- (d) by exception at any other times as the Board permits.

All other periods are Prohibited Periods, when Trading or dealing in Securities is prohibited, unless otherwise allowed by this policy.

4.2 Permitted Trading

Subject to the requirements of this policy, Staff may only Trade during a Trading Window:

- (a) if they do not have Inside Information; and
- (b) if the Trade is not for short term or speculative gain.

5. Further restrictions

5.1 No margin lending

- (a) Staff are not permitted to enter into margin lending arrangements in relation to Securities. The grounds for this include that the terms may require Securities to be sold during a Prohibited Period or when the Staff possesses Inside Information.
- (b) This restriction does not extend to other funding arrangements where Securities may be included as security. Staff should consult the Company Secretary if they are uncertain as to whether an arrangement should be classified as a margin lending arrangement.

5.2 No short term or speculative trading or short selling

- (a) Staff must not engage in short term or speculative trading in Securities or in derivative or other financial products issued over or in respect of Securities. Short term means in less than a 6 month period. Staff must not engage in short selling of Securities.

5.3 No hedging

Subject to the law, Staff and their closely related parties (as defined in the Corporations Act) must not:

- (a) enter into transactions or arrangements with anyone which could have the effect of limiting the exposure of the member to risk relating to an element of the member's remuneration that:
 - (i) has not vested in the member; or
 - (ii) has vested in the member but remains subject to a holding lock; or
- (b) deal at any time in financial products over or in respect of Securities, except for the type of dealing permitted by law or under this policy.

6. Clearance procedures

6.1 Authorised trading with Written Clearance

Staff may only Trade during a Prohibited Period if:

- (a) they do not have Inside Information;
- (b) it is not for short term or speculative gain; and
- (c) they have a Written Clearance to do so (having been obtained following the process set out in this paragraph 6).

6.2 Written Clearance procedure

For personal use only

- (a) If a Staff Member proposes to Trade during a Prohibited Period (including entering into an agreement to Trade) at any time during a Prohibited Period they must first provide (using the appropriate form) both:
- (i) written notice (which may be by email) of their intention and request for Written Clearance to the Authorising Officer listed below (unless otherwise notified to the relevant Staff Member):

All other Staff	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Managing Director; or in the absence of the Managing Director, a non-executive Director nominated by the Managing Director for the purpose.

6.3 Confirmation

- (a) Before Trading, the Staff Trader must receive a confirmation from the Authorising Officer(s). That confirmation may be by email or electronic confirmation, or verbal if supported by email confirmation in the following 24 hours.
- (b) Any Written Clearance must state the period for which the authority for Trading is given. If no period is stated, a Written Clearance expires 10 business days from its date of issue.
- (c) A Written Clearance confirms that the proposed Trade by the Staff Trader is within the terms of this trading policy but does not otherwise constitute approval or endorsement by the Company or the Authorising Officer for the proposed Trade.
- (d) Despite any authority given under this Policy, the responsibility for Trading rests with the individual Staff Trader, including assessing whether the prohibition on Insider Trading referred to elsewhere in this policy applies to them.

6.4 Guidance for Authorising Officers

An Authorising Officers' powers under this Policy must be exercised in accordance with the law and in a responsible and sensible manner having regard to the purpose of this Policy and having regard to desirable protocols to be followed to prevent Trading inside Prohibited Periods (except in exceptional circumstances) and protocols regarding Inside Information or the public perception that Insider Trading may have occurred by reason of this Policy not being adhered to.

7. Notification of Trades

7.1 Trading by Directors

- (a) Without limiting any other clause of this policy, each Director must notify the Secretary of any Trading by that Director (whether or not occurring within or outside a Trading Window and whether or not Written Clearance was required) as soon as possible after the Trade has occurred so as to facilitate the timely lodgement with ASX of an Appendix 3Y or other prescribed form notifying ASX of the initial acquisition, change of interests or cessation of Directors' interests as required by the Listing Rules.
- (b) Each Director's disclosure obligations in relation to their notifiable interests are set out in a Director's letter of appointment (required by Listing Rule 3.19B).

7.2 Informing the Company of Trades

- (a) Staff Traders must notify the Secretary of the details of completed Trades (including the number of Securities affected and the relevant parties to the Trade) as soon as practicable but no later than three business days after each Trade.
