For the avoidance of doubt, if any securities are held by or for or otherwise controlled by Party A (whether or not as part of any hedge in relation to the Transaction), each party acknowledges and agrees that Party B has no right or interest in or to any of those securities or any power in relation to them including, without limitation, any power to control, or right to be consulted, concerning disposal or trading of those securities by Party A or any decision by Party A with respect to the exercise by Party A or Party A's nominee of the right to vote attaching to those securities.

7. Optional Early Termination – Party A

Party A (the "Terminating Party") may terminate the Transaction, by giving not less than 30 calendar days' notice (an "Optional Early Termination Notice") to the other party any time during the regular trading session hours of any Scheduled Trading Day on or after the Effective Date to and including the final scheduled Valuation Date. Such Optional Early Termination Notice (which will be given by telephone, otherwise a written notice will be provided) must specify the date on which the Terminating Party terminates the Transaction (the "Optional Early Termination Date") and the early Valuation Date for the purposes of determining the Optional Early Termination Amount (the "Early Valuation Date"), which shall be the same date.

If Macquarie issues an Optional Early Termination Notice, then this Transaction will terminate on the Optional Early Termination Date, and the Valuation Date in relation to the Transaction shall be deemed to be the Optional Early Termination Date. Macquarie shall notify Party B of the Optional Early Termination Amount no later than 2 Currency Business Days following the Optional Early Termination Date, and the Optional Early Termination Amount shall be payable on the Optional Early Termination Payment Date.

If Party B pays an amount to Party A equal to the Equity Notional Amount (the "Initial Exchange Amount") within 5 Currency Business Days of the Optional Early Termination Notice, then Party A will be taken to have revoked the Optional Early Termination Notice, and the Transaction shall continue until the Termination Date and Party A shall have no further right to early terminate this Transaction under this paragraph 7 of this Confirmation. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision shall not prevent either party from exercising its rights under Section 5 of the Agreement (Events of Default and Termination Events). Upon receipt of the Initial Exchange Amount, the Spread will reduce to % p.a. with immediate effect. Party A shall pay Party B an amount equal to the Initial Exchange Amount (the "Final Exchange Amount") on the Settlement Date (the "Final Exchange Date").

For the purposes of the above the following definitions apply:

"Optional Early Termination Amount" means in respect of the Optional Early Termination Date, the amount as determined by the Calculation Agent acting in a commercially reasonable manner. The Calculation Agent shall provide to Party B a statement showing, in reasonable detail, such calculations (including any quotations, market data, or information from internal sources used in making such calculations) of the Optional Early Termination Amount.

"Optional Early Termination Payment Date" means the date which is 5 Currency Business Days following the Optional Early Termination Date.
