Jayex subsidiary successfully obtains Cultivation Licence for Medical Marijuana

Melbourne, Australia; 12 April 2021: Jayex Healthcare Limited (ASX: JHL) (Jayex or Company), is pleased to announce, further to its announcement made on 30 March 2021, that the Company's wholly owned subsidiary Whakaora Hou Limited (WHL) has now successfully obtained a cultivation licence for medical marijuana from the New Zealand Medicinal Cannabis Agency (NZ Ministry of Health).

The Board of Jayex thanks the team in WHL for their efforts in preparing the facility for operation and meeting the strict guidelines required under the New Zealand legislation.

"With the meticulous preparations to obtain the licence now complete, we look forward to executing on the business plan for WHL and will keep shareholders updated as we progress," said Michael Boyd, Executive Chairman of Jayex.
