Outlook Highlights

- With the substantial cross selling opportunities available in VET-in-Schools, organic and new Direct School projected growth and the main Reseller resetting its sales efforts, the Directors expect revenue to continue to grow strongly for FY22.

ReadCloud Limited (“ReadCloud” or “the Company”) (ASX: RCL) is the leading provider of digital eLearning solutions to secondary schools and the VET-in-Schools sector in Australia. The Directors of ReadCloud are pleased to provide a quarterly update and cash flow statement for the June 2021 quarter.

Operational update

Quarter 4 is typically focused on further developing course materials, compliance, onboarding processes and the ReadCloud software platform leading into the quarter 1 and 2 selling and onboarding period.

Strong progress has been made across these areas to better allow ReadCloud to scale operations as part of accelerating the growth of the business.

During this period ReadCloud has been focused on investing in marketing and business development to accelerate growth in FY22 and beyond with the implementation of a new outbound phone/online video sales force that is building a healthy sales pipeline for the 2022 school season.

Further development of the Company’s proprietary eReader platform continues to provide ReadCloud with a strong competitive advantage in regard to the platforms’ feature set, ease of use and efficient onboarding of schools and students. Key differentiators will be leveraged by the direct sales team during the upcoming selling season as well as to equip existing and new Resellers with a strong digital offering.

Direct School user numbers are now over 57,000 (up 21% on FY20) which management is pleased with given the impact of COVID-19 in school year 2020.

Additionally, ReadCloud completed the acquisition of Ripponlea Institute Pty Ltd (“Ripponlea Institute”) on 8 June 2021. Ripponlea Institute is a Registered Training Organisation (“RTO”) and the national market leader in VET-in-Schools courses for Applied Languages, a key vertical in the VET sector. It provides programs to 70 secondary schools throughout Australia. It also offers the Certificate IV in Training and Assessment (“TAE”), a required qualification for all teachers of VET across the entire sector, which is currently being promoted to all of ReadCloud’s VET customers.

With the acquisition of Ripponlea Institute, the ReadCloud group is now the second largest private operator in the VET-in-Schools market in Australia by number of students and the largest by number of VET qualifications offered.

The enrolment process for ReadCloud’s VET-in-Schools business was completed in the June quarter, with over 14,000 students (including 2,000 students using Ripponlea Institute) now enrolled in over 55 different VET courses (up 56% on FY20). For clarity, the FY21 consolidated revenue does not include revenue from Ripponlea Institute as the acquisition was completed in June 2021.

An extensive national marketing campaign is underway for cross-selling through the existing school customer base as well as promoting the ReadCloud VET services to new schools by offering the widest range of VET qualifications to schools in Australia.

ReadCloud is also increasing marketing efforts to capitalise on Ripponlea Institute's offering of the Certificate IV in Training and Assessment, a qualification that is required by all VET teachers. This is expected to drive additional new business in FY22.

As previously reported, ReadCloud's largest Reseller significantly reduced their business levels in 2020, largely accounting for a 20% fall in platform users for this sales channel versus FY20 and a $1 million reduction in revenue. This was due to the Reseller undergoing a merger and a restructuring process leading to a new management team being put in place. ReadCloud has invested in working more closely with this Reseller in order to assist in rebuilding their schools business through extensive training of sales staff and joint marketing efforts.

ReadCloud continues discussions with a number of school booksellers about becoming a ReadCloud Reseller. The ReadCloud platform provides traditional booksellers with a platform for digital delivery of the full-curriculum that they don't currently offer. This has generated strong interest and a pipeline of opportunities, with numerous trials under way in advance of the 2022 school year selling season.

ReadCloud now has over 550 school and educational institution customers with over 116,000 users on its platform split by sales channel as follows:

Channel	June 2020	June 2021	% Change
Direct full-curriculum schools	47,000	57,000	+21.3%
Reseller schools	56,000	45,000	-19.6%
VET-in-Schools	9,000	14,000	+55.6%

Outlook

ReadCloud is confident that the strategy to accelerate growth through the investment in organic marketing and business development combined with targeted acquisitions will result in strong revenue growth in FY22 underpinned by the following:

VET-in-Schools

- Of ReadCloud's 400+ VET-in-Schools customers, 85% of those schools use only one of ReadCloud's VET providers (AIET, COSAMP or Ripponlea). This represents a substantial cross-selling opportunity over the coming years as schools in general prefer to deal with fewer RTOs to simplify the compliance process requirements and gain familiarity with only one software platform.

- Management expects to see early positive results from the cross-selling of the three ReadCloud owned RTOs in FY22.

Direct Schools

- The outbound sales strategy is being well received as schools are receptive to finding solutions to the issues and learnings of the COVID year. Given COVID learnings to date, this additional sales strategy, supported by dedicated sales staff actively managing numerous opportunities across each key market, has yielded a comprehensive pipeline that is actively being worked on for the 2022 school selling season.

Resellers

- Following discussions with ReadCloud's main Reseller, management is confident the loss of revenue of FY21 has been halted and that a re-setting of sales approach and services offering should see the Reseller return to growing revenue. With the recruitment of new resellers, further growth in FY22 is anticipated in this segment.

Following the acquisition of Ripponlea Institute, ReadCloud's annualised revenue run-rate at the end of FY21 stands at $9.0 million (assuming COSAMP and Ripponlea Institute were owned for all of FY21).

Finance Update

Key highlights from the accompanying Appendix 4C Cash Flow Statement:

- 17% increase in cash receipts from customers for the June quarter (to $2.5 million, on the prior year June quarter of $2.1 million), with a higher trade receivables balance at 30 June 2021 versus the prior year ($0.5 million versus $0.2 million);
- 16% increase in total cash receipts from customers for FY21 (to $6.8m on FY20);
- Cost of sales (payments to publishers) for the June quarter was $1.1 million relating to eBook sales during the March and June quarters; and
- Staff costs for the June quarter were $1.0 million, up $0.1 million on the March 2021 quarter, mainly reflecting additional payroll costs associated with outbound sales staff and the Ripponlea Institute acquisition. Staff costs for the June 2021 quarter include payments to related parties of $0.19 million (Directors' remuneration for the June 2021 quarter).

ReadCloud has recorded unaudited consolidated revenue for FY21 of $7.51 million (FY20 $7.46 million) despite reduced Reseller revenue (which is the lowest margin revenue channel) of $1.0 million compared to FY20. Subject to audit confirmation, underlying EBITDA for H2 FY21 (after adding back the effect of certain non-operating and/or non-cash items) is expected to be positive.

The Company has a strong balance sheet with a cash balance of $6.3 million as at 30 June 2021 and $0.5 million of debt (acquired as part of the Ripponlea Institute acquisition).
