OPERATING PERFORMANCE

Compared with the 1H21 quarterly average, cash earnings increased 1% and cash earnings before tax and credit impairment charges decreased 1%:

- Revenue declined 1% with higher volumes and margins more than offset by lower Markets & Treasury (M&T) income which is being challenged by more limited trading opportunities given the impacts of current global monetary policy settings. Excluding M&T, revenue rose 1.9%;
- Net interest margin (NIM) was broadly stable. Excluding M&T and higher liquids, NIM increased modestly with lower deposit and funding costs partly offset by the impact of low interest rates combined with home lending competition and mix;
- Expenses fell 1% with higher technology and investment spend offset by productivity benefits. We continue to target FY21 expense growth limited to 0-2%³

“Our performance this quarter is encouraging. Cash earnings rose 10.3% compared with 3Q last year, supported by significantly better credit impairment outcomes.

Particularly pleasing is the strong momentum across our business. In Australia, housing lending rose 2% and SME business lending grew 4.3%, both outpacing system in recent months². Our New Zealand business also delivered robust growth with lending up 2.7%. These outcomes are a result of the decisions and investments we are making, which are having a positive impact for customers and colleagues.

We have a clear focus on where and how we will continue to grow. The exit of MLC Wealth is now complete, and the acquisitions of 86 400 and Citigroup’s Australian consumer business will help accelerate our growth strategy.

Continued COVID-19 outbreaks and lockdowns are creating uncertainty and challenges for some of our customers. Through this we will support them while keeping our bank safe. However, we remain optimistic about the long-term outlook for Australia and New Zealand. The strong economic momentum leading into this period, ongoing government support and customers’ relatively healthy starting positions give us confidence that once restrictions are eased, the economy will again bounce back.”

ASSET QUALITY

- Credit impairment charge (CIC) was a write-back of $112 million reflecting improving asset quality across both housing and business lending combined with the impact of higher house prices and continued low specific charges. There has been no impact on CICs from changes to the Economic Adjustment or Forward Looking Adjustments during the quarter.
- Compared with March 2021, the ratio of collective provisions (CP) to credit risk weighted assets fell 13 basis points (bps) to 1.37%. The key driver has been the sale of approximately $1.5 billion of aviation loans and associated CP reduction⁵ of approximately $300 million in May, to de-risk the portfolio.
- The ratio of 90+ days past due and gross impaired assets to gross loans and acceptances decreased 10 bps to 1.13%. Key drivers include improved performance across the Australian home loan portfolio and lower levels of impaired assets in the business lending portfolio largely due to successful workouts and debt reductions.
- As at 31 July, total deferred loan balances associated with current lockdowns were less than $1 billion.
