Our vision

A trusted and transparent financial services industry, which is accessible to everyone, and where financial crime is impossible

The problem we solve

The information needed to process and report financial transactions is often incomplete, inaccurate or even missing, holding up payments and increasing the risk of non-compliance

The industry symptoms:

- Successful payments require significant amounts of information
- Manual information sharing with regulators and counterparties is unsecure
- The information sits in multiple legacy systems and is hard to find
- Manual processes increase risk of human error and cost of compliance
- Different information is needed for each country regulator

78%

of firms expect they will need to collect more payment information than they do today²

Our growth strategy

The Identitii growth strategy has several phases:

Deliver

Focus on business basics, and service existing clients in HSBC, Mastercard, HomeSend and Novatti.

Land

Licence as many regulated entities as possible to use our platform. Focus on Regulatory Reporting and Correspondent Banking payment investigations

Expand

Grow licence revenue with existing customers, including the 11,500 SWIFT member banks looking to migrate 10 Billion payment messages to ISO 20022 before 2025.

Innovate (Connect)

Utilise our patent to create a global ecosystem for secure, rich financial information, enabling faster processing of payments and reducing financial crime

Payble

Monetise technology investments which do not fit our core RegTech strategy

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Why $2b in bank fines was necessary

AUSTRAC boss Nicole Rose doubts the banks would have spent millions of dollars fixing their systems without the $2 billion in fines the regulator has extracted over the past two years.

Banking Executive Accountability Regime:

Set out in Part IIAA of the Banking Act 1959, establishes accountability obligations for authorised deposit-taking institutions (ADIs) and their senior executives and directors. The regime also establishes, among other things, deferred remuneration, key personnel and notification obligations for ADIs.

Patent and intellectual property

> Legacy technology and manual processes cost financial institutions more than $US 305B every year³.

Idetitii has patent protected a unique way to solve this problem

Market Context

When any type of currency moves from one account to another, there is an increasing demand for real-time processing. What holds real-time payments up is the need for detailed transaction information, which today is held in a mix of legacy payment systems and shared manually.

Changing Standards

ISO 20022 will allow more information to move with payments, and ultimately will facilitate payments moving between legacy networks such as SWIFT and emerging payment gateways like Mastercard, Ripple, or R3's Corda. However adoption is complicated and many banks are not looking to migrate until 2025.

Idetitii's Patent

The Idetitii platform enables the global financial services industry to migrate more than 10 billion payment messages per year to ISO20022. The Company's ambition is to deploy the patent it owns and connect Idetitii customers with its platform to create an Idetitii-owned and operated global ecosystem for financial information.

Payble – monetising technology

Payble is creating a world where failed or late bill payments are a thing of the past for businesses and consumers

Identitii maintains a 60% stake in Payble, alongside CBA's x15ventures which invested $1M for a 22% stake in 2021

Key milestones:

- Payble was founded by Identitii, to monetise previous technology investment in Loot
- Today it is targeting Australian businesses and consumers, frustrated by the direct debit experience
- $1 million invested by CommBank's x15ventures, their first minority stake
- First energy retail customer signed contract in 2021
