Stakeholders include institutional investors, directors, proxy advisers, investment bankers, journalists and ultimate owners

Built and nurtured over many years

When public, our analysis is widely circulated and read

We view 'activism' as a critical investment tool

Conventional thinking regarded Specialty Fashion Group as "failed" or "failing". Our analysis indicated otherwise

Decided to back the board with a recapitalisation proposal. Underperforming businesses were sold, allowing the remaining business to thrive

Investors continue to reap the rewards as CCX successfully executes its "A World of Curves" strategy

Analysis indicated that Fleetwood's shares traded on a "scorched earth" basis after years of poor performance. Change was imperative

Identified the need to focus on manufactured buildings

Campaigned for board and management changes, the sale of non-core assets, and improved management and governance

Board now has widespread shareholder support, a strong senior management team

Began campaign for Iluka Resources to demerge its MAC Iron Ore Royalty in 2016

After several years of patient, persistent work, involving long discussions with other shareholders and analysts, a consensus formed in favour of a demerger

Today, Iluka and the newly demerged Deterra Royalties both enjoy strong market support

We invest in undervalued companies

As value investors, we look for undervalued assets, where:

Prices are below their intrinsic value

We can encourage positive changes

Human nature creates attractive investment opportunities that require shareholder pressure to liberate or create value

We actively engage with companies to promote positive changes

Identify companies that are mispriced and where there are opportunities to promote positive changes, and shape the future

Transform a company so its value is better appreciated by the market

Takes time for our approach to bear fruit. Capital we manage is similarly aligned. Allows us to be patient and persistent.

Use rigorous analysis to build shareholder consensus

We unlock value by taking a proactive approach

We focus on engaging to maximise the certainty of our value creation strategies

We adapt to each unique situation, employing both a range of visible and less visible techniques
