JORC Code

It is a requirement of the ASX Listing Rules that the reporting of ore reserves and mineral resources in Australia comply with the Joint Ore Reserves Committee's Australasian Code for Reporting of Mineral Resources and Ore Reserves ("JORC Code"). Investors outside Australia should note that while ore reserve and mineral resource estimates of the Company in this document comply with the JORC Code (such JORC Code-compliant ore reserves and mineral resources being "Ore Reserves" and "Mineral Resources" respectively), they may not comply with the relevant guidelines in other countries and, in particular, do not comply with (i) National Instrument 43-101 (Standards of Disclosure for Mineral Projects) of the Canadian Securities Administrators (the "Canadian NI 43-101 Standards"); or (ii) Industry Guide 7, which governs disclosures of mineral reserves in registration statements filed with the SEC. Information contained in this document describing mineral deposits may not be comparable to similar information made public by companies subject to the reporting and disclosure requirements of Canadian or US securities laws. In particular, Industry Guide 7 does not recognise classifications other than proven and probable reserves and, as a result, the SEC generally does not permit mining companies to disclose their mineral resources in SEC filings. You should not assume that quantities reported as "resources" will be converted to reserves under the JORC Code or any other reporting regime or that the Company will be able to legally and economically extract them.

SAYONA HAS ASSEMBLED A SIGNIFICANT RESOURCE BASE IN QUÉBEC

Resource Size (Measured & Indicated, Tonnage in Millions) and Grade (%)

1) Moblan resource is not NI 43-101 or JORC compliant at this time. The Sayona resource comprising the foreign estimate at NAL does not reflect any depletion of the resource resulting from mining at NAL. See ASX announcement of 13 September 2021.

SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENT IN NORTH AMERICAN LiOH CAPACITY IS NEEDED

North America requires an additional 13 x 20,000 tonne hydroxide trains and 13 x 150,000 tonne spodumene mines by 2030

Incremental LiOH Required To Satisfy NA Demand⁽¹⁾

1) For Passenger & Light Commercial EVs - assumes incremental demand for EV's to be 75% lithium hydroxide, with an average lithium content of 0.78Kg LCE per kWh

2) Assumes an average lithium hydroxide operation of 20,000 tonne trains annually at 80-85% capacity utilization

3) 6% Spodumene required; 160,000 tonnes, 1,000,000 tonnes and 2,000,000 tonnes respectively for 2020, 2025 and 2030

CANADA IS THE MOST COMPETITIVE SUPPLIER TO THE NA EV MARKET

Canada's lithium suppliers benefit from an economic moat as global producers are incentivised to ship to Europe and China

Australia Supplies China

- Australia's highest netback: $795/t to China

Canada Supplies US / Europe (POR), Surplus To China

- Canada's highest netback: $818/t to USA

Brazil Keeps Markets In Sync

- Brazil's highest netback: $817/t to Europe (POR)
- Netback to China: $776/t

Global Spodumene Pricing Netbacks

Indifference Price Summary (US$)

	To: CHN	To: USA	To: EUR (POR)

CAN	$880 - $954/t	$802 - $880/t	$819 - $897/t
BRA	$880 - $921/t	$876 - $917/t	$839 - $880/t

1) Australia's highest netback route is to China, the largest importer of spodumene. It does not need to sell to other regions at a price below the China CIF

AUTHIER LITHIUM PROJECT OVERVIEW

Authier integration into Abitibi Hub brings many advantages

- ◆ NAL integration greatly simplifies Authier
 - Becomes a quarry – no processing takes place on-site
 - Permitting approval process significantly simplified
 - No duplication of concentrator and associated infrastructure - increases capital efficiency and IRR
- ◆ Supplies ore for blending to improve performance of NAL concentrator
- ◆ Quicker time to spodumene concentrate production

KEY RISKS

Risk factors include but are not limited to the following:

1. General

An investment in the Company is subject to risk. The existence of risk means that the performance of the Company could be adversely affected.

The Directors have identified what they believe to be the major risks that may affect the Company. While the Company has endeavoured to disclose all material risks, you should be aware that the risks contained in this Section are not exhaustive. This Section should be treated as a general guide only.

While the Company may be able to minimise the impact of some risks through various risk management techniques, many of the risks identified in this section are beyond the control of the Company and as such cannot be eliminated or their impact minimised.

2. Key Risks specific to the Company

Exploration Risk

The successful exploration and development of mineral properties is speculative. There is no assurance that exploration of the tenement portfolio in which the Company has an interest, will result in the discovery of a mineral deposit that can be economically mined or the increase in any current mineral resource or conversion of mineral resources to ore reserves.

The exploration costs of the Company are based on certain assumptions with respect to the method and timing of exploration. By their nature, these estimates and assumptions are subject to significant uncertainties and, accordingly, the actual costs may differ materially from these estimates and assumptions.

Resource Estimates

Resource estimates are expressions of judgement based on knowledge, experience and industry practice. Estimates which were valid when originally calculated may alter significantly when new information or techniques become available. In addition, by their very nature, resource estimates are imprecise and depend to some extent on interpretations, which may prove to be inaccurate.

As further information becomes available through additional fieldwork and analysis, the estimates are likely to change. This may result in alterations to development and mining plans which may, in turn, adversely affect the Company's operations.

KEY RISKS

Many of the mining claims in which the Company has an interest are subject to ongoing royalty obligations. The amount of royalties payable in respect of a claim may have an impact on the economic viability of that claim, depending on various factors such as commodity prices and prevailing economic conditions.

Project Funding

The future development of the Company's Authier Lithium Project, North American Lithium Project and Moblan Project (the Projects) will require the Company to obtain additional equity and debt funding. There is no certainty that the Company will be able to secure the necessary funding, or secure it on terms that are economic, to enable the future development of the Projects.

Land Access

From time to time, the Company's tenements or tenements the Company has a legal or beneficial interest in, may be subject to claims or other access restrictions. These may relate to the owner of the land on which the tenements are located, or indigenous rights of local indigenous people. In those circumstances, Sayona may have to resolve access arrangements under the relevant regime prior to entering upon the land to carry out activities or developing a mine on the tenements. Access arrangements may be subject to provision of monetary compensation, compensation for damage to land, restoration of the land.

There can be no guarantee that applications or access arrangements will be resolved in a timely fashion, in Sayona's favour, or in manner which is commercially viable for Sayona.

Tenure

Interests in a project's tenements are governed by legislation and are evidenced by the granting of licenses or leases. Each license or lease is for a specific term and carries with it expenditure and reporting commitments, as well as other conditions requiring compliance.

In addition, an interest (or a right to earn an interest) in a project may be governed by agreements with parties which require compliance with certain conditions, commitments and obligations.

Consequently, the Company could lose title to or its interest in tenements or a project if these conditions, commitments and obligations are not met as and when they arise.

KEY RISKS

Sovereign and Political Risk

The Projects are all located in Québec, Canada. As a result, the Company is subject to political, economic and other uncertainties, including but not limited to changes in mining and exploration policies or the personnel administering them, nationalisation or expropriation of property, cancellation or modification of contractual rights, foreign exchange restrictions, currency fluctuation, royalty and tax increase and other risks arising out of foreign government sovereignty over the areas in which the Company's operations are conducted.

The Company's future operations in Québec may be affected by changing political conditions and changes to laws and mining policies. The effects of these factors cannot be accurately predicted and developments may impede the operation or development of a project and even render it uneconomic.

NAL development

Sayona is presently undertaking a scoping study for an integrated NAL and Authier mining project, with a view to recommencing operations and the production of spodumene at the NAL processing facility. The recommencement of mining operations and spodumene production involves an update of the mineral resource and block model, upgrade to the run-of-mine feed systems, crushing circuit improvement works, other plant refurbishment; pit de-watering and updates to certain permits. A delay in any of these activities may adversely impact on Sayona's plans, related timelines and the anticipated date by which the Company presently anticipates commencing production of spodumene from the project.

Moblan acquisition

The acquisition of the Moblan project is structured as an assignment of LRC's binding right to acquire the Moblan interest from Guo-Ao Lithium Ltd. The acquisition is subject to the Company raising sufficient capital to complete the acquisition and other customary closing conditions. Guo-Ao Lithium Ltd's obligation to assign the Moblan interest is unconditional, subject to completion occurring by 15 October 2021. If any of the conditions to closing are not satisfied or waived by the Company, or Guo-Ao Lithium Ltd defaults under its obligations, the Company may not be able to complete the acquisition, which may have a material adverse effect on the Company.

3. Industry Risks

Development Risk

There is a risk that the Company will not be able to economically mine any mineral resources or ore reserves discovered in its tenement portfolio in order to produce a satisfactory commercial return. There are significant risks associated with the development of an operating mine. Before the Company can build a mine, the Company will need to obtain various regulatory approvals and licences, including environmental licences. There is no guarantee that the Company will be able to obtain the required approvals and licences or that it will be able to comply with any conditions imposed on those approvals and licences in a cost-effective manner.

KEY RISKS

There are also many operational and technical risks associated with developing and operating a mine. These risks may have an adverse effect on the capital costs, operating costs or time to develop a project and consequently, adversely impact the economic viability of any future mining activities.

Environmental Risk

Mineral exploration and development carries some level of environmental risk. The Company may require statutory approval from relevant environmental authorities before it can undertake certain activities that may impact on the environment. Development of identified mineral resources will be dependent on the project meeting environmental guidelines and gaining the required approvals from government departments.

It is the Company's intention to conduct its activities to the highest standard of environmental obligation, including compliance with all environmental laws.

Market Volatility

Share market conditions may affect listed securities regardless of the operating performance of a particular company. Market conditions are affected by many factors including investor confidence, general national and global economic outlook, changes in or outlook on interest rates, changes in or outlook on inflation, commodity prices and supply of capital.

The Shares of the Company may rise or fall in price depending on market conditions and investor attitude.

Commodity Prices

The Company's Share price, future revenues and cash flows may be impacted by changes in the prices of minerals commodities. Commodity prices are influenced by physical and investment demand and may rise or fall. Fluctuations in commodity prices, specifically lithium may influence individual projects in which the Company is involved. Similarly, the demand for products in which lithium is used may impact commodity prices and in turn adversely affect the Company's own financial position and/or Share price.

The international prices of most commodities are denominated in United States dollars. Changes in the Australian/United States dollar exchange rate may impact the value of the Company and its Shares. Exchange rates are influenced by numerous macro-economic factors beyond the Company's control.

Financial Performance

Sayona is a mineral exploration company. The Company has no immediate source of revenue. The Company will not generate any revenue until such time as it is able to successfully implement its plans to restart lithium production at the Company's NAL project.

Consequently, until Sayona is able to realise value from its projects, Sayona will incur ongoing operating losses.

KEY RISKS

Reliance on Key Personnel

As an exploration company, Sayona is dependent on its senior management and key personnel for the day-to-day operations and strategic management of the Company. The value of the Shares and the operations of the Company could be adversely affected by the departure of any of these employees.
