BRISBANE Australia, 21 October 2021: Felix Group Holdings Ltd (ASX: FLX) (“Felix” or the “Company”) is pleased to release its quarterly business update and Appendix 4C for the period ended 30 September 2021 (“Q1 FY22”).

Sales growth accelerating

During the quarter, Felix added 6 new Contractor customers, a record quarterly achievement, as pipeline conversion accelerates across the business. This represents a step-change in new sales with the Company achieving 75% of the previous year’s customer wins in Q1 FY22 alone.

Felix is focused on its near-term goal of doubling FY21 Contractors (see page 12, Results Presentation – FY2021, 23 August 2021). Building on the strong momentum during the quarter, Felix is observing significant demand from leading Contractors for its enterprise procurement solution, with 61 advanced pipeline opportunities and 139 qualified opportunities at the close of the quarter.

Felix's Co-Founder and CEO, Mike Davis commented:

“At the close of FY21, we set a near-term goal of doubling the number of Contractors. We are incredibly excited by the step-change in Contractor growth in Q1 FY22, with a record number of new sales. Momentum is building into the new quarter with 61 advanced stage opportunities in our pipeline, with the release of our new ‘project-focused’ module package expected to further accelerate sales.”

The 6 new Contractors signed during the quarter represent high-quality leading Contractors across Australia. Leading Contractors signed include Fulton Hogan, a Tier 1 construction Contractor active across Australasia, and Seymour Whyte, owned by global construction player VINCI Construction (EPA.DG). Felix also saw further expansion into its new high value target sectors, with the following new contracts signed:

- Primero: a vertically integrated Contractor specialising in global resource projects owned by NRW Holdings (ASX.NWH)
- Westgold (ASX.WGX): a West Australian gold explorer, developer and miner
- GenusPlus (ASX.GNP): a power and telecommunications infrastructure provider
- FKG Group: a rapidly growing Contractor across commercial construction, civil engineering and support services to the property, resources, infrastructure and government sectors

In addition, 3 customers expanded their existing licences, through either increased usage or the addition of the Procurement Schedule module. No customers churned during the quarter, reflecting Felix's ability to become deeply embedded in Contractor workflows and the significant value derived from the platform.

In Q1 FY22, Felix recorded total new Group ARR of $0.5m. The growth in total new Group ARR was driven by $0.4m in new Contractor subscriptions, which increased 486% on the prior corresponding period (Q1 FY21: $0.1m) and $0.1m in new Vendor subscriptions. New subscriptions signed in the quarter was in excess of all new subscriptions signed in FY21. Notably, total Contractor subscriptions increased 22% in the quarter to $2.3m.

A key focus for Felix has been scaling Contractor customers and increasing Contractor ARR following a deliberate strategic shift in FY20. In line with this strategy, Contractor ARR contribution has increased from 40% in Q1 FY21 to 55% in Q1 FY22, illustrated in Figure 2. Group ARR for Q1 FY22 increased 11% on the previous quarter to $4.2m. Figure 3 highlights the material increase in Contractor subscriptions in the quarter, increasing 44% on pcp (Q1 FY21: $1.6m), driven by strong sales momentum and new module expansion.

Enterprise platform expansion

Felix is currently developing a new project-focused Essentials module package leveraging the existing suite of modules. Essentials provides a 'lite' version of Felix's existing module offering tailored for individual Contractor projects. Felix expects this new offering will significantly reduce the sales cycle, as it will be sold directly to project managers (rather than at an enterprise-wide level). In addition, this package further enhances enterprise upsell opportunities, having proven the platform value on a project basis. Early discussions with a number of prospective customers suggesting strong demand for the new offering.

During the quarter, Felix released the highly anticipated and strategic Procurement Schedule module. This tailored solution serves as the nerve centre of the enterprise platform, enabling organisations to connect critical project planning, scheduling and tracking data with key sourcing processes. The Company is pleased by the strong response and uptake by both new and existing cornerstone customers, including FKG group (see ASX announcement 'First New Enterprise Customer for Procurement Schedule Module', 30 August 2021).

Vendor Marketplace

Driven by the mandated use of Felix by Contractors, the number of Vendors in the Vendor Marketplace continued to grow. In Q1 FY22, Felix added 3,545 new Vendors, increasing the total number of Vendors by 42% on pcp. The new 6 Contractors signed during the quarter are expected to onboard their Vendors once implementation is completed in Q2 FY22 resulting in the onboarding of approximately 7,000 Vendors.

Key engagement metrics

Record Contractor uptake in the quarter has led to greater penetration and usage of Vendor Marketplace in Contractor workflows, contributing to strong growth against key usage metrics (to the period ending 30 September 2021):

- Total Contractor User Accounts: +106% previous corresponding period (pcp)
- Requests for Quotations (RFQ) sent by Contractors: +95% pcp
- Number of Active Projects: +273% pcp
- Total active Vendor Compliance Documents: +61% pcp

Corporate Update

During the quarter, Felix had operating cash outflows of $1.1m, including receipts from customers of $1.4m. At the end of the quarter, Felix held $7.6m in cash and cash equivalents. The cash position ensures that the Company is well placed going forward in achieving its strategic objectives.
