

New York State Gaming Commission Recommends PointsBet for a Mobile Sport Wagering Licence

9 November, 2021 - Melbourne, Australia - PointsBet Holdings Limited (ASX: PBH) notes that at a public meeting held on Monday, November 8, 2021 (US time), the New York State Gaming Commission (NYSGC) has recommended that PointsBet New York LLC be awarded a Platform Provider licence to operate mobile sports wagering in New York.

In addition to Pointsbet, eight other operators were recommended by the NYSGC - FanDuel, BallyBet, BetMGM, DraftKings, Rush Street Interactive, Caesars, WynnBet and Resorts World.

Official approval procedures will follow, with the recommended operators to undertake independent system testing ahead of official launch, expected in early 2022.

"Today's news of being recommended by the New York State Gaming Commission marks an exciting moment for us at PointsBet" commented US CEO Johnny Aitken.

"Having the potential to secure market access to New York state – expected to be one of the largest and most important markets in the United States – represents another major milestone for our company, our brand, and our technology. We are thankful to the Gaming Commission for this recommendation and believe it speaks volumes to PointsBet's reputation and ability to deliver an unrivaled, world-class experience. We eagerly await the official opportunity to leverage our exclusive sports betting partnership with NBC Sports and introduce the nation's premier sports betting product to the countless passionate, sports-loving New Yorkers."
