Tinybeans to raise A$8 Million in Share Placement

Tinybeans Group Limited (ASX: TNY) (OTCQB: TNYF) (“Tinybeans” or “the Company”), an inclusive, informative, go-to resource for all things parenting, is pleased to announce that it has received commitments for a A$8 million placement (“Placement”) to institutional and sophisticated investors.

Highlights

- Tinybeans to raise A$8M in a strongly supported capital raise via a two-tranche placement from a number of existing and new high quality institutional and sophisticated investors from both the United States and Australia.
- Tinybeans continues to see material growth in its underlying business with proceeds from the Placement to assist in additional product development, marketing, general working capital purposes, and acceleration of Beanstalk, the Company’s new subscription product; and
- As part of the capital raise, CEO, Eddie Geller, plans to convert his director loan of US$300k (plus interest accrued up to the completion date of tranche 1 of the placement) to shares at the same issue price paid by investors under the placement. To be approved at the upcoming AGM.
- Tinybeans will launch a Share Purchase Plan (SPP) at the same issue price as paid by investors under the Placement.

Tinybeans’ Chief Executive Officer, Eddie Geller, said:

“Following another quarter of record revenue performance in Q1-FY22, this additional capital provides us with greater flexibility to execute on our growth strategy. The proceeds will bolster the strength of our balance sheet as we seek to fund key product growth initiatives. Our progress over the last 18 months has demonstrated the potential of what Tinybeans has to offer in the global parenting market, as well as our traction with enhancing the value our platform provides to users and brand partners alike. We are grateful for the support of our new and existing institutional investors, and we will continue working to advance our momentum and maximize shareholder value.”

Tinybeans’ Non-Executive Chairman, John Dougall, said:

“Given the pleasing support for the capital raise, it is timely to consider the appropriate Board skills required to accelerate the Company’s growth. We will now commence a process to appoint an experienced Non-Executive Chair and an Australian-based NED, well-credentialed in capital markets. In a smooth and orderly transition, I will remain on the board until these appointments are completed in 2022. The business is performing well, and we look forward to the continuing execution of our growth strategy.”
