Motio appoints new CFO: Michelle Malley

Motio is pleased to announce the appointment of Michelle Malley as the company's new Chief Financial Officer.

With over 20 years Australian and International experience, Ms Malley is a highly regarded professional with an impressive track record in Financial management and leadership across a range of companies.

Ms Malley previously worked as Head of Commercial Management & Pricing for Norton Rose, was the Head of Finance for Jemalong Property Group and was the Financial Controller of Hogan Lovells in London as well as significant time with Deloitte and KPMG.

CEO of Motio, Adam Cadwallader said Ms Malley had the ideal aptitude to lead our Finance team as the company continues to grow "I'm extremely pleased to welcome Michelle to the team. She has already made an impact on the business initially focussing on systems, processes and analysis in our quest for growth over the coming years. Michelle has a breadth and depth of experience which has added significant capability to the business."

Ms Malley holds a Bachelor of Business (Accounting) from Griffith University and is a Chartered Accountant.
