Offering a suite of products to enable education providers to build lifelong learning businesses

Platform Subscription

- Providing an innovative learning platform and tools on a SaaS model to enable education providers to deliver courses online

Program Delivery

- Partnering with top institutions to deliver programs on the OpenLearning platform with capabilities across full spectrum of program delivery

Value-add services

- Providing a marketplace and learning design services to clients to drive network effects and accelerate platform adoption

Note: Platform Subscription revenue includes: OpenLearning platform subscription, BEST Network; Program Delivery revenue includes: UNSW Transition Program Online, CS101 (pending); Value-added services revenue includes: marketplace, learning services and OpenCreds

OpenLearning's current growth initiatives

- Provision of a market-leading, end-to-end platform for education providers to move online
- Investment in product-driven growth to increase sales and marketing efficiency
- Expansion of its SaaS model's addressable market by targeting new sectors and geographies:
  - United States
  - Indonesia
  - Registered training organisations and private education providers in Australia and Malaysia
- Increasing enrolments and university partners for the UNSW Transition Program Online
- Entry into the corporate up-skilling market with:
  - Computer Science 101 (CS101)
  - Technology-focused OpenCreds

Strategy is now delivering a step change in revenue

- Platform revenue increased by 186% YoY to $0.825m, expecting Q4 FY21 to continue this trend

- Platform revenue is comprised of:

- Platform Subscription
- Program Delivery

- Successful launch of the UNSW Transition Program Online (TPO) in March, attracting over 100 students in FY21 thus far

- SaaS customers grew 37% YoY to 196 and annual recurring revenue (ARR) grew 15% YoY to $1.414m in Q3 FY21

1. Annualised recurring SaaS revenue, calculated by utilising the generally accepted industry standard, which involves multiplying the monthly accrued SaaS revenue in the month at the end of the quarter by 12 (months). The ARR calculation does not take into account the future expiry of the term of any contract under which SaaS revenue is generated or any customers lost during the relevant month. SaaS ARR includes platform subscriptions from both the OpenLearning Platform and BEST Network.

Investment in sales, marketing and partnerships to drive platform revenue growth in 2022

- New sales/marketing processes and team members are now in place in Australia and Malaysia
- Testing market entry into the U.S. via outsourced sales representatives targeting college/universities in Q4 FY21
- Outsourced sales representatives working with Australian partnerships team to target registered training providers
- Expansion into Indonesia began in Q3 FY21 with local sales team and support from Malaysian office
- Developing channel partnerships and affiliate deals
- Focus on account management with larger clients to grow usage and provide value-added services
- Self-service usage-based SaaS model utilising Stripe is working and enabling supporting inside sales
