Fulfilment & Operations

Large scale, highly dynamic content from millions of artists creates constantly evolving product catalogue

RB Group aggregates and enables consumer demand for artists from organic and paid channels

Made on-demand and shipped directly from the 3rd party network enabling "infinite" product listings with positive unit economics

...that are very difficult to replicate at scale

reusable

Highly scalable and dynamic content added without upfront cost drives marketplace success

More artists continue to join and sell on RB Group marketplaces

More active and engaged artists create more content

More content combined with more products equals greater variety

More variety and more artists attracts more customers

On-demand model enables customers to be serviced more efficiently

The growing artist community and their content library has increasing value and defensibility

RB Group has built the largest online community of independent artists and is uniquely positioned in the growing creator economy

Artist acquisition remains very low cost for the Group

More artists leads to more artist content available for sale

Vast content library is hard to replicate, representing a strong barrier to entry and defensive moat offering truly unique choices

Organic traffic continues to drive the majority of customer acquisition

As an aggregator of demand, RB Group connects artists to millions of customers

Long tail listings are a competitive advantage for attracting customers

- Opportunity to enhance loyalty and build brand awareness

Majority of sales still generated from customers via organic channels

RB Group $639m GTV in CY21

Continued and sustained growth driven by macro tailwinds

Structural shifts to eCommerce expected to endure post-pandemic

Growing creator economy accelerated by new concept of 'work'

Increasing consumer demand for unique and meaningful products

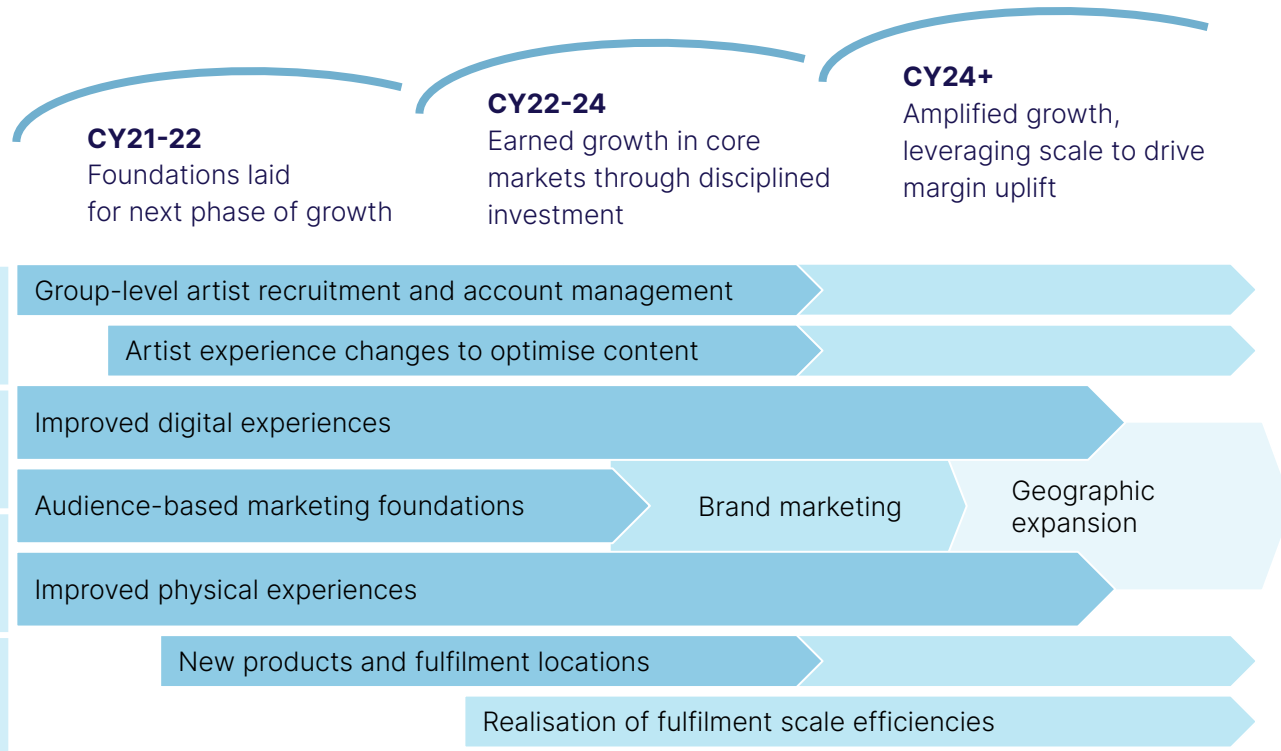

Sustainability and corporate social responsibility driving consumer and investor choice

4 Multiple high potential growth levers

Clear strategic plan based upon high potential levers over the medium term

Artist activation and engagement

User acquisition and transaction optimisation

Customer understanding, loyalty and brand building

Outlook

Redbubble provided updated outlook statements in its market announcement on 18 January 2022.

Redbubble now expects FY22 Marketplace Revenue to be slightly below FY21 underlying Marketplace Revenue. FY22 EBITDA margin as a percent (%) of Marketplace Revenue is now expected to be negative low single digits.

The business remains confident and excited about the medium to longer-term opportunity to grow strongly its online marketplaces for consumers and extend Redbubble's global market leadership as the largest platform for independent artists.

Marketplace Revenue (A$m, FY19 - FY22)

1. Mask sales contributed $57 million to FY21 Marketplace Revenue, resulting in FY21 underlying Marketplace Revenue of $497 million.
