Good progress in building core foundations to unlock best in class availability

- Integration of demand planning capability
- Solutions mapped and scoping underway to improve availability
- Planned improvements across value chain to drive data visibility and actionable insights

Turbocharging digital experience, upholding a safe and convenient experience

- Progress on delivering digital experience initiatives including app launching in March
- Acceleration of online fulfilment capabilities in store through changes to operating model and multi skilling team
- Extension of customer reach through launch of Everyday Market

Continuing to simplify our offer to align with customer shopping missions

- Continued focus on range curation while providing value on items that matter most to families
- Competitive pricing through the smarter pricing program
- New 'Everyday Value' program launched in February

Continuing to demonstrate real care in our communities

- Continued partnership with Clontarf Academies, which employ young Indigenous men in 17 BIG W stores, with plans for 20 more in Q3
- Maintained employment of all team members during periods of store closures
- Launch and roll out of 'Toys for Joy' toy recycling program to 61 stores in the half, to be rolled out across all stores in H2
