Brief explanation of results

The Fund's performance over the 6 months to 31 December 2021 was a 19.5% increase in underlying Net Asset Value net of fees and expenses, and accounting for the A$0.15/unit June 2021 distribution). Over the 12 month period to 31 December 2021, the Fund's NAV (net of fees and expenses) increased by 27.1%, or 36.4% when accounting for the A$0.15/unit June 2021 distribution). This was a substantial outperformance over the benchmark S&P/ASX Small Resources Index which returned 27.5%.

The Fund's strategy is long-only, ungeared and focused on emerging resources equities. It continues to maintain an overweight position in ASX listed gold explorers and developers. Over the six months to 31 December 2021, the USD$ gold price peaked at a record of over US$2,050/oz, before retracing by around 10% by year end. The Fund's largest gold exposures are Predictive Discovery, Genesis Minerals and Musgrave Minerals.

As at 31 December 2021, the Fund held a 50% exposure to gold equities.

In other commodities, the USD price of copper was flat over the half year but nickel rose around 15% in the 6 month period, as stockpiles of nickel dwindled, boosting the value of the Fund's key nickel holdings were Centaurus Metals (up 57%), Azure Minerals (up 48%) and Talon Metals. The Fund exited its position in Centaurus after its strong run.

The best performing metals of the half year were tin and lithium. The Fund's main exposure to lithium Red Dirt Metals surged from $0.16/sh to $0.665/sh.

In Energy, fossil fuels rebounded the strongest from a lacklustre 2020, with natural gas and oil up 47% and 55% in calendar 2021. The Fund's allocation to O&G at 31 December was 8%, after profitably exiting its position in Karoon Energy. As at 31 December 2021, Melbana Energy was the largest O&G holding. Uranium bounced 40% as well, driven by the new SPUT ETF buying of physical U3O8, as well as ongoing mine curtailments.

Harvesting of profitable positions resulted in revenues from operations of $13.79 million (2020 $12.44 million) million), operating profit of $10.99 million (2020 $9.93 million) and earnings per unit of $0.38 (2020 $0.357).

The strong financial performance is largely due to continued implementation of the Fund's commodity-diversified stock selection strategy in a continued broad based resource sector recovery.

Basis for Conclusion

We conducted our review in accordance with ASRE 2410 Review of a Financial Report Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity. Our responsibilities are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Review of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional & Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards) (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the annual financial report in Australia. Independent Auditor's Review Report To the Unitholders Lowell Resources Fund

Auditor's Responsibility for the Review of the Financial Report

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the half-year financial report based on our review. ASRE 2410 requires us to conclude whether we have become aware of any matter that makes us believe that the half-year financial report is not in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 including giving a true and fair view of the fund's financial position as at 31 December 2021 and its performance for the half-year ended on that date and complying with Accounting Standard AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

A review of a half-year financial report consists of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.
