Bank Update

“I’m pleased that the business is demonstrating consistent growth in all key areas. Notably, our high margin Specialist Warehouse through BNK’s alliance with Goldman Sachs, recorded a second straight quarter of record results with $98m in 3rd quarter settlements. This backed up our strong 2nd quarter result of $96m,” said Allan Savins, CEO – BNK.

“Furthermore, I’m confident that our BNK (On Balance sheet) and BEN warehouse settlement volumes will also grow over the next quarter. We currently have the second highest loan application numbers in our history for residential loans. This will likely translate into one of our strongest settlement quarters during 4Q22 as these applications transition through the pipeline.

“BNK is now in the position where we can demonstrate our consistent growth trajectory across settlements, loan portfolio and deposits. With our strong capital position following the Finsure sale, I expect our progress to not only continue, but accelerate,” Mr Savins said.
