Use of funds

Credit Clear has been successful in winning material new clients every month in 2022. The size and sophistication of the client wins has been particularly noteworthy, with several new clients featuring in the Company's top-5 clients by industry segment. The number and size of new client wins has created the requirement to invest in onboarding efficiencies to monetise these new clients as soon as possible. The board has decided to bring forward this technology development work to streamline onboarding and enhance client customisation capabilities. The company expects the investments in these areas to have a beneficial impact on cash flow.

Profitable by July 2022

The Company has reconfirmed its stated position to be profitable by July 2022.

Andrew Smith, Credit Clear CEO, said:

"Credit Clear is winning new business at a faster rate than I have ever previously experienced in this industry. This is because of our technological advantage that can provide clients with an immediate uplift in performance. We also win business because our technology is supported by a full-service offering, where we bring a modern and holistic end-to-end approach to account receivables management."

"As we have previously flagged with investors, the volume of new clients has become a real challenge to onboard. While this is a fantastic problem to have, it nevertheless is one that needs to be solved. The additional capital raised will allow us to quickly build a scalable solution to client onboarding that allows the business to grow unrestrained into the future in Australasia and internationally."

The Placement comprised the issue of approximately 17.4 million New Shares. The New Shares subscribed for under the Placement are expected to settle on Thursday, 9 June 2022, with allotment and normal trading on ASX to commence on Friday, 10 June 2022. New Shares issued under the Placement will rank equally with existing Credit Clear shares on issue. The Placement was undertaken within Credit Clear's existing placement capacity under ASX Listing Rule 7.1.
