ASX Announcement

RESPONSE TO MEDIA ARTICLE

MONEYME Limited (ASX: MME) ("MONEYME" or "Group") refers to an article appearing overnight in the Street Talk section of the Australian Financial Review regarding a potential equity capital raising.

The article states that MONEYME tested an equity capital raising proposal with investors. That is not correct. Whilst MONEYME assesses its growth and funding opportunities regularly, the Board has made no decision to raise equity at this time.

The article also contained inaccurate information about MONEYME's historical and projected financial performance. MONEYME's financial disclosures to ASX accurately reflect the Company's past performance.

MONEYME is pleased with the performance of the business and is well-placed to respond to changes in the macroeconomic environment. In that context, the business is addressing potential challenges and opportunities by:

- Adopting pricing changes to offset rising interest costs.
- Progressing term securitisation transactions to improve MONEYME's cost of capital. Through actions taken to date, MONEYME has already substantially reduced its cost of capital from 12% in FY19 to 5% in 1H22.
- Further increasing the credit quality of the loan book including by adding secured asset finance growth through MONEYME's Autopay product and accessing higher credit-score borrowers, to support strong loan book performance.
- Leveraging the scale and other business advantages that come from the acquisition of SocietyOne. Cost saving synergies of $17m pre-tax annual benefits by FY24 are progressing ahead of plan.
- Utilising MONEYME's AI-driven technology platform and the combined MONEYME and SocietyOne dataset for robust credit decision-making.
