Commenting on the FY22 results, DDH1 Managing Director and CEO Sy van Dyk said:

"All of our operational teams should be acknowledged for their tireless dedication to our business and each other, and for delivering on our growth strategy. Our can-do culture and the team's willingness to meet the requirements of our broad customer base is exceptional.

Demand for our Company's specialised services from mine producers and explorers continued at record levels across our four brands – DDH1, Ranger, Strike and Swick. This was reflected in our metres drilled, a record for the company at 3.49 million metres.

We achieved record results notwithstanding increases in underlying costs, particularly related to managing headcount in light of COVID requirements. Pleasingly we are successfully managing to meaningfully increase rates as contract renewals roll over, although the timing difference between immediate cost increases and our strategy of rate increases at renewal or with new tenders has temporarily reduced operating margin. Our EBITDA margins are still remarkable.

The successful and transformative acquisition of Swick was a highlight. Importantly, Swick's underground capabilities complement our service offering and provide opportunities for expansion into the North American and Western European markets for our surface drilling operations."

DDH1 Chairperson Diane Smith-Gander highlighted the strength of the underlying business and its diversified revenue profile:

"DDH1 has again delivered to expectation during FY22 reflecting the strength and commitment of the managerial and operational teams. This performance is noteworthy considering the operating environment of employee mobility challenges due to travel restrictions, COVID absenteeism and the inflationary environment.

The Board is especially pleased that the business has improved safety performance whilst growing organically and inorganically. The business is well set to pursue it's growth aspiration and deliver significant free cash flows for capital management purposes.

On behalf of the Board, I thank our staff for their contribution."

Capital Management

DDH1 announced an on-market share buy-back program on 1 July 2022. The proposed number of shares to be acquired over a 12-month period is up to 34,280,468 shares, or approximately 8% of DDH1's current share capital. The program will commence following this release of the Company's preliminary unaudited results.

The Board considers the price for DDH1 shares significantly undervalues the Company given its strong performance. DDH1 has a sustainable dividend policy with a payout ratio of 30% – 50% of operating NPATA. The buy-back program should not impact this policy due to the Company's robust operating cash flows.

Operational Overview

Demand for DDH1's full suite of services from mine producers and explorers continued at record levels across its four brands. Accordingly, DDH1 added 15 rigs, which increased the fleet size to 183 at the end of FY22. A further 11 rigs are currently on order or under build.

FY22 revenue per shift increased by 3.4%. FY22 rig utilisation of 77.4% was up on FY21 by 2.4 percentage points (FY21 75.0%). Rig utilisation was however impacted due to labour movement restrictions and COVID related absenteeism. The easing of mobility restrictions has alleviated staffing pressure for entry level roles during 4Q FY22. Skilled operators remain in high demand within the drilling industry. DDH1 is confident it has the right operating environment, best-in-class equipment, customer exposure and growth opportunities to continue to attract and retain the most skilled operators within the drilling industry.

During FY22 inflationary pressures were evident, notably on wages, repairs and maintenance and consumables. The Company is working to offset input costs and has a history of diligently managing all aspects of its business. Concurrently, DDH1 is working with clients to increase drilling rates in a tight supply market.

DDH1 continued to drive a financially disciplined strategy of organic and inorganic growth. DDH1 successfully completed its acquisition of Swick (Drilling Division) on 16 February 2022, a leading international underground diamond drilling provider. Swick complements and extends DDH1's service offering. Importantly, Swick provides established access to the highly prospective international markets in North America and Western Europe. DDH1 is imposing its capital discipline to Swick's strong market position to ensure EBITDA manifests into strong cash flows.

Focus for FY23 and Outlook

For the balance of FY23 DDH1 will remain focused on:

- Increasing margins with continued focus on rate increases

- Cash flow generation
- Integration of Swick and extracting synergies from the transaction
- Being a leader at the forefront of renewable transition given such a high correlation of DDH1's focused commodities and their criticality in the transition from fossil fuels
- Disciplined investing in any additional capacity

The outlook for FY23 is positive. Despite the macroeconomic factors that are currently impacting market sentiments, the fundamentals driving demand for DDH1's services remain compelling.

Key drivers are summarised below:

- The majority of DDH1 revenue is derived from production and resource definition drilling programs. In FY22 87% of revenue was generated from this segment
- Exploration and resource companies remain well-funded and have strong balance sheets to undertake drilling programs
- There is a strong need for exploration to maintain diminishing mining reserves
- Increasing demand for battery metals, which require commodities that DDH1 drill for and are found in abundance in Australia, and
- The need for deeper drilling is resulting in larger drilling programs and an increasing demand for specialist drilling

DDH1 will provide a further operational update with the release of its audited full year results on 30 August 2022.

INDUSTRY & MARKET UPDATE

RENEWABLE DEMAND TO INCREASE

- CAPEX remains at well below the absolute levels of the peak of the last cycle in 2012
- A sustained production cycle needs increased exploration spend to ensure mining reserves are not diminished further
- The trend towards decarbonisation continues to gain momentum and the energy transition will be a multi-decade process
- Battery metals are found in abundance in Australia where DDH1 has a strong presence

COMMODITY PRICES REMAIN ROBUST

- Commodity markets are typically 25% to 50% larger in 2022 than in 2012
- Commodity prices are relatively high compared to the previous 5 years
- The increasing price of coal will drive drilling demand for coal and decrease capacity in the broader non-coal markets in which DDH1 operates in. DDH1 doesn't operate within the coal sector

COMMODITIES PRICES (INDEXED)

INCREASING DEMAND FOR SPECIALISED DRILLING

- Mining industry transitioning from shallower to deeper deposits:
    - More complex geology requiring more detailed information for mine planning
    - Increased drilling requirements to locate mineral deposits
- Development of mining technologies improving capability to mine at greater depths
- DDH1 drill fleet capability and technical expertise can deliver deeper, more complex drill programs
- Directional drilling capability contributes to:
    - Increased accuracy of geological information for development and planning
    - Time and financial savings attributed to drilling multiple branch holes from one main hole

INDUSTRY REMAINS WELL-FUNDED

- Exploration and resource companies have strong balance sheets and cash balances
- DDH1 works closely with its broad client base and has clear visibility for FY23 demand
- Most clients have indicated they intend to prosecute planned drilling programs

OUR RESPONSE TO CURRENT INDUSTRY CHALLENGES

Labour	• Access to labour has improved since the opening of the WA borders in early March • Focus on enhancing the employee value proposition is successfully attracting sufficient employee numbers • Successfully using social media as a recruitment tool and able to source staff from New Zealand with open borders • Turnover remains low for critical driller level positions • On track to reach full employee capacity in Q1 FY23, but COVID disruptions continues to be a risk
Inflation	• Contracts have been structured with the ability to on-charge many consumables at cost plus • Shorter-term contracts are being renewed with rate increases to offset higher costs • Longer-term contracts include rise and fall mechanisms
Rig Availability	• Lead times for surface rigs remain between about 8-12 months (excluding automation features) • 11 surface rigs currently on order for FY23 with 4 arriving in Q1 FY23 • Strong relationship with OEMs resulting in first call option when build slots become available or low-hour second-hand rigs become available
Underground Rig Manufacturing Capability	• Swick manufacturing capability enables an underground rig build to be completed in 6-8 weeks • Current manufacturing capacity can deliver up to 20 rigs per year • Underground segment is not constrained by rig availability
