Kin Mining NL (ASX:KIN) ("Kin" or "the Company") is pleased to announce a capital raising of approximately $20.4 million to underpin the next phase of growth at its 100%-owned Cardinia Gold Project (CGP) near Leonora in Western Australia. The raising comprises a Placement of approximately 129.9 million shares at $0.075 to raise $9.7 million and a proposed non-renounceable entitlement offer (EO), also at $0.075, to raise an additional $10.7 million.

The Placement included $4.7 million contributed by existing shareholders and $5.0 million from new investors, demonstrating strong continuing support of the Company's strategy.

The funds raised will strengthen the Company's balance sheet, putting it in a strong position to complete the next phase of growth at the CGP and follow-up on the exciting new discoveries and targets identified through Kin's highly successful exploration campaigns over the past three years.

This includes the developing discoveries along the Eastern Corridor (Cardinia Hill, East Lynne, Rangoon, Fiona and Helens East) as well as multiple new prospects which have been identified following significant advancements in the Company's understanding of the geology and potential of the Cardinia Project.

Commenting on the capital raising, Kin Managing Director Andrew Munckton said:

“We continue to appreciate the incredible support of our major shareholders and are also pleased to welcome a number of new institutional and sophisticated investors to our register. While the past three years have been busy, exciting and rewarding – with nearly 200,000 metres of drilling completed and an additional 494koz of Mineral Resources added – we know that the Company’s properties are located in an exciting and well sought-after mineral field, and remain convinced that our tenure will yield further significant discoveries.

“The geological and technical advances made across the Company’s prospects, particularly at Cardinia, with the use of modern geophysics and detailed geological data collection, has transformed our understanding of the field. Armed with this knowledge and our expanding geochemical, geophysical and drilling database, we believe Kin can continue to identify new, shallow deposits that are the surface expression of larger and higher-grade mineralisation in the underlying fresh rock. We have plans to drill significant new targets throughout the next 12 months across a range of established and new prospects, as well as assessing other opportunities within the broader Leonora district.

“The quality of these exploration targets and the strength of support for this capital raise means we can expect strong news-flow over the coming months, commencing with a Mineral Resource update scheduled for September.”

Details of the Placement

Kin shares are expected to resume trading on the ASX from market open on 18 August 2022. The issue of these Shares is expected to be settled on Wednesday, 24 August 2022 and begin trading on Thursday, 25 August 2022. The issue of all Shares under the Placement will be completed within Kin’s existing capacity under ASX Listing Rule 7.1.

Canaccord Genuity (Australia) Limited and Argonaut Securities Pty Ltd acted as Joint Lead Managers to the capital raising.
