CEO Charif El Ansari stated: “Dropsuite have delivered a strong first half result reflecting the growing scale, breadth and superior user experience of our cloud-based backup solution. We exited the period with over 808k users, strong ARR momentum and a very healthy balance sheet which will allow Dropsuite to remain at the forefront of the industry tailwinds we are witnessing in the global data security sphere. Operationally we remain focused on improving the experience for our customers and strategically we will continue to balance investment for growth with our guidance of delivering cashflow breakeven in FY22. With a strong and dedicated team, we are well positioned to deliver on our strategies and create value for our shareholders over the remainder of 2022 and beyond.”

¹ Annualised Recurring Revenue (ARR) is defined as the value of the contracted recurring revenue multiplied by 12 months

Operational Performance

	1H FY22	1H FY21	% Change
Annual Recurring Revenue ($m) – AUD	20.1	11.0	83%
Paid Users (m)	0.8	0.5	56%

Outlook

Dropsuite remains well positioned to continue to deliver strong annual recurring revenue growth driven by our significant existing partner base and a growing pipeline of new partners. The strong market tailwinds from data security and regulation are expected to remain with a growing pool of Microsoft 365 and Google Workspace users, expected to exceed 570 million by 2026, providing a significant growth opportunity.

Over the remainder of 2022 the company will focus on:

- Continuing to deliver ARR growth via its existing partner ecosystem and strong sales pipeline.
- Achieving continued operating profitability and positive cash flow.
- Driving product innovation to maintain our leading position as a backup vendor of choice.
- Continuing to invest in talent bench-strength as well as sales and marketing expansion.
- Exploring high conviction M&A opportunities which leverage existing internal growth and take advantage of strong market tailwinds around data protection.

The announcement was approved by the Board of Directors.
