31 October 2022

Appendix 4C and Business UpdateHighlights

- Subsequent to quarter end, LiveTiles completed its Operational Review which led to identified annual savings of $6.48M
- Signed an agreement to obtain the right to acquire the remaining 80.03% in shares My Net Zero in October
- The Company is consolidating and simplifying its go-to-market and product portfolio
- The Board continues to carefully assess the Proposal from BigTinCan along with preliminary discussions with other parties interested in LiveTiles
- Cash receipts of $9.4M for the September quarter, cash position of $12.6M at 30 September 2022

LiveTiles Limited (ASX:LVT) (LiveTiles or the Company), a global leader in employee experience software for employee collaboration and communications, has today released its Appendix 4C and Quarterly activities report for the three month period ended 30 September 2022 and is pleased to provide the following update.

Cash Balance and Cash Flows

Cash on hand at 30 September 2022 was $12.6M. Net operating cashflows in the quarter of $(4.3)M, was $2.0M lower when compared to the June-FY22 quarter, with the September quarter result impacted due to the drop in customer cash receipts.

The slowdown in cash receipts is in line with expectations as outlined at the EGM held on the 5th September 2022 as the Company has undergone a thorough Operational Review to refocus its growth strategy, complete a restructuring and streamline efficiencies among its sales and account management functions. These operational changes have resulted in a delay to the collection of a number of expected Q1 cash receipts

With the Operational Review and restructure now complete, the $6.48M of cost savings will begin to be reflected in future financial reports as the Company progresses towards breakeven and profitability.

The payments to related parties of the entity and their associates in section 6 of the Appendix 4C includes payments such as compensation to executive directors and director's fees and loans to executive directors on arms-length terms.

Business update

LiveTiles completed its Operational Review in October which was conducted in response to shareholder feedback and evolving market conditions. The review has resulted in the identification of annual savings of $6.84M. The review has refocused the company's growth strategy and prioritised profitability. The Company expects to see a short to medium term impact on performance.

In October, LiveTiles signed an agreement to obtain the right to acquire the remaining 80.03% of shares, in tranches, in leading carbon and climate change platform, My Net Zero.

The acquisition of My Net Zero and its combined product offering follows rapidly growing demand from existing LiveTiles customers and provides a unique opportunity to accelerate growth and perfectly align with the changing employee engagement needs of globally leading enterprises.

As the Company heads towards the end of the calendar year with a strong focus on customer engagement, a project is underway to consolidate and simplify its go-to-market and product portfolio to help implement priorities for the start of 2023.

The Board continues to carefully assess whether the Proposal from BigTinCan (ASX:BTH) to acquire all of the outstanding shares in LiveTiles for $0.07 per share, announced on 4 October 2022, is in the best interest of all LiveTiles shareholders. The Board is also holding preliminary discussions with other parties that expressed interest in LiveTiles.

Given the changes that have taken place and the fact that the Company is assessing the Proposal from BigTinCan alongside interest expressed by other parties, the Company will update the market at half year FY23 results with new key metrics.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board.
