Mach7 – The Enterprise Imaging Solution

Mach7's medical imaging software solution centralises, stores, organises and displays patient data across the healthcare enterprise – connecting hospital networks and facilitating data flow between hospital departments and clinicians everywhere.

The Mach7 product suite works with or replaces a healthcare enterprise's existing, and sometimes antiquated, medical imaging infrastructure to:

- affordably fill the connectivity gaps created by siloed departmental imaging solutions,
- eliminate IT complexity, and
- ensure clinicians have a complete and comprehensive view of their patients' imaging history

Enterprise Imaging is a strategy rather than a product

Enterprise imaging refers to the ability to store and/or view medical images across the healthcare enterprise from more than one service line or department.

Enterprise Imaging
Vendor Neutral Archive (VNA)	Universal Viewer	Image Exchange	Picture Archive Communication System (PACS)
The ability to store images from multiple service lines or departments. Strong functionality is required to help healthcare providers to tag, store, and retrieve images.	The ability to view images from multiple service lines. Images can be pulled from a VNA or standalone, departmental systems. The ability to quickly load images of various sizes and formats is essential.	Extends the benefits of enterprise imaging by sending images to other healthcare organisations. Scalability, technology, and relationships are important features.	PACS is an ancillary part of enterprise imaging, with most PACS vendors offering VNA, universal viewer, and image exchange technology. Images from the PACS are often the starting point for enterprise imaging.

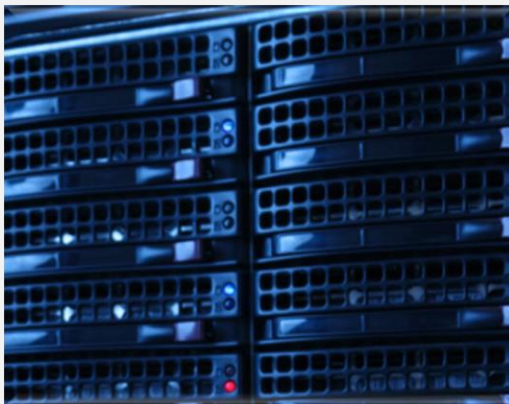

Enterprise Imaging – a focus on the entire healthcare network

Mach7 provides an enterprise-wide interoperable platform for storing, retrieving and viewing all medical imaging data in one vendor neutral ecosystem. It comprises:

Enterprise Data Management

Vendor Neutral Archive (VNA)

- Patient data and image capture, indexing, management, storage, distribution, viewing, exchange, and analysis of all clinical imaging and multimedia content in one powerful platform

Enterprise Diagnostic Viewing

Sales/Partnerships

New Sales and New Partnerships

Sales effort on New customers and increasing book of business

Dedicated channel partner sales manager.

Existing and new partnerships (eg: Nuvodia) expand sales pipeline.

Client Outlook began as a partnership, resulted in a successful acquisition.

Investment

Engineering Excellence

Engineering hiring phase near complete - attrition replacement and some expansion.

R&D is a people cost for Mach7 – it is expensed rather than capitalised.

Continue to strengthen team and core company culture

Cashflow

Remain Cashflow Positive

Cash receipts to be boosted by staggered capital deals already contracted.

Q1 cashflow impacted by one off costs; successive quarters to improve.

On track for positive full year operating cashflow for fourth consecutive year.

Industry

Growing trend for hospitals to outsource non-urgent radiology. Acute care settings account for ~60% of US medical imaging; expect this proportion to apply to ambulatory/outpatient clinics within 5 years.

Consolidation in the US hospital sector continues to aid tech spending rebound. M&A amongst medical imaging vendors creating disruption and presenting both sales and acquisition opportunities.

Product

Highly acclaimed products translating to marketplace recognition and increased traction.

Mach7 products span ambulatory to acute care spectrum; well placed to benefit from structural change.

Replenished and innovation-focused R&D team; own-brand visualisation toolkit for eUnity viewer and new releases prioritised.

Sales & Marketing

APAC region to make greater contribution to sales orders in FY23 than prior year.

Robust registrations for flagship RSNA Conference expected to deliver additional sales opportunities and potential partnerships.

Sales pipeline continues to grow with benefit of new partnerships; however some timeframes extended.

Financial

Targeting FY23 sales orders of at least $36M (+8% on FY22)

Revenue guidance of +20% on FY22 of $27.1M. Staggered capital deals and sales order visibility bridges gap from CARR of $17.9M and ARR run rate of $15.5M at September 30, 2022.

Revenue and cashflow remain lumpy; timing of deal flow may see sales orders weighted to 2H FY23.
