Q2 FY23 December Quarter Update and Cash Commentary

Yowie Group Ltd (ASX: YOW) (the “Group” or “Yowie”) wishes to provide the following quarterly update based on unaudited results for the quarter ended 31 December 2022:

Highlights

- Q2 FY23 Group net sales of US$3,321k, -20% versus pcp. YTD sales totaled $7,002, -14% versus pcp. We continue to see consumer consumption negatively impacted by the prevailing economic uncertainty and inflationary pressures, along with retailer inventory contraction to manage the uncertain economic environment.
- Q2 FY23 EBITDA was -US$138k, versus pcp (+US$312k). YTD EBITDA stands at -US$87k compared to +$621k in the pcp. Both the quarter and YTD were impacted by lower overall sales, increased freight and legal costs.
- Net cash for the quarter decreased by US$190k, comprised of the following: an FX gain of +US$153k, use of cash in operations of US$327k, and an outflow of US$16k from investing.

Q2 FY23 December Quarter Cash Review

- Net cash decreased for the quarter -US$190k. YTD net cash has decreased -US$168k.
- US$3,223k was spent on administration, manufacturing and operating costs, net of interest received.
- US$16k was spent on product development.
- Foreign exchange gain of US$153k as the AUS dollar has strengthened versus the US dollar.
- The aggregate amount of payments to related parties and their associates in the current quarter cash flows from operating activities were US$103k, comprising directors fees, salaries and superannuation.

Q2 Financials – Update

Q2 net sales were US$3,321k, -20% versus the pcp. YTD sales totaled $7,002k, -14% versus pcp. Continued inflationary pressures have influenced US consumer purchasing decisions specifically on non-essential food items, including the chocolate novelty category. In addition, US retailers remained cautious by tightening on hand inventory levels in the 4th calendar quarter negatively impacting our shipments.

AUS retail sales remain steady and we look forward to further rolling out the anticipated Easter seasonal offerings.

Group EBITDA loss for the quarter was -US$138k compared to +US$312k in the pcp, impacted by the lower year on year sales, increased legal fees relating to the Whetsone case, new product investment and higher freight/storage costs.

Outlook

Q2 and YTD results have been negatively impacted by consumer concern about inflation and slowing economies. Recognizing we need to continually challenge ourselves and suppliers to deliver more value to our customer, we have increased our efforts to offer more aggressive retail trade programs, roll out new and exciting Yowie and licensed products and work with our retail partners on appropriate inventory levels. Recognizing we need to manage through cost increases in packaging, raw materials, freight and warehousing, our plan is to remain flexible, but aggressive, to deal with the uncertain market.

As we've stated in the past, our mission is to grow topline sales, achieve sustainable operating profitability, effectively manage cash and build shareholder value. Critical focus areas include:

1. Sales growth remains our number one priority driven by increased retail distribution in both the US and AUS, expanding product offerings, being competitive across all trade channels, and expanding consumer awareness through digital and experiential engagement. We also continue to evaluate other markets as warranted.

2. Innovation to grow topline sales and increase consumer awareness of our brand mission to educate consumers about conservation and endangered species, including, but not limited to:
 - a. New product development, both seasonal and flanker products. We have new seasonal items hitting the AUS shelves for Easter 2023.
 - b. Consumer digital and experiential engagement, providing existing and new consumers a direct look at how we focus on play and learning.
 - c. Brand licensing partnerships in mission appropriate spaces.
3. Manage the company's financial resources responsibly and prepare for investing opportunities at retail, with new products and improving product supply.

We have managed difficult market environments in the past. Continued focus on distribution expansion, competitive trade programs with our largest retailers and new seasonal and everyday items will help us grow the Yowie brand.
