SFG ASX Announcement No: 746

Construction Dispute Update

Seafarms Group Limited (ASX: SFG) (the Company) today received the decision of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors adjudicator in the contractual dispute with construction contractor Canstruct regarding Project Sea Dragon.

The adjudicator has determined a total amount of $13.9m (exc. GST) is payable to Canstruct as per claims of money owed following the suspension of work on Project Sea Dragon (PSD) in December 2021 and later termination of contracts in April 2022.

Commenting on the decision, CEO Mr Rod Dyer said:

“We are extremely disappointed with the decision of the adjudicator in the contractual dispute with Canstruct.

“Seafarms provisioned $8.7m for a settlement of this dispute in its 2022 accounts, and has the capacity to cover the balance. We believe the determination to be excessive and are now considering our next steps on this matter, including legal redress.

“Once that legal advice is received and considered, the Company will provide the market with a further update.

“With respect to the future of Project Sea Dragon, as stated in our announcement of 30 November 2022 the assessment of key risks to Project Sea Dragon in 2022 found there was no technical reason why it should not continue.

“We remain focused on the development of a new business case for Project Sea Dragon.”
