IMPORTANT INFORMATION

TAKE NO ACTION

9 June 2023

Dear Fellow Shareholders

As you may be aware, on 1 June 2023, Bubs received a 'Request for Directors to Call a General Meeting' pursuant to section 249D of the Corporations Act from a group of shareholders (the requisitioners) to remove your current Board and appoint their own nominees.

The requisitioners comprise former Executive Chairman Mr Dennis Lin, former CEO Kristy Carr¹, Infant Food Business Pty Ltd, AZ Global Corporation Pty Ltd and Willis Trading Ltd who collectively represent approximately 5.04% of the voting shares in the company.

What do you need to do

At this time, there is no requirement for shareholders to take any action until you receive the Notice of Meeting which will contain all the information you need to enable you to make an informed vote.

What's happening?

Recently, your Board has taken the following steps to protect and grow shareholder value:

- Terminated the employment of Mr Dennis Lin and Ms Kristy Carr;
- Appointed a highly credentialled independent Chair; and two highly credentialled independent directors;
- Undertaken a comprehensive board-led strategic review of the business, including assessments from independent experts, with a focus on expenditure management and growing the Chinese and US markets.

Your Board has taken these necessary steps after extensive consideration and as a result of the recent significant deterioration in Bubs' financial performance and the longer-term decline in shareholder value.

Your Board has a strong vision and the right skill set and experience to drive change and to grow value.

What's next?

We will soon communicate to you a very clear business approach focusing on a strategy that has the best prospect of delivering shareholder returns and putting the business on a path of sustainable growth.
