

ASX Announcement

RocketDNA Ltd Name Change (Formerly Delta Drone International Ltd)

HIGHLIGHTS

- RocketDNA Ltd completes change of name following ASIC and shareholder approval at FY2022 AGM in late May, formerly Delta Drone International Limited
- RocketDNA will trade under ASX ticker code 'RKT' from Tuesday, 13 June 2023
- Name change provides alignment across its business activities and corporate identity with a single name across the group

13 June 2023, RocketDNA Ltd (ASX: RKT), formerly Delta Drone International Limited, a Global drones-as-a-service provider, is pleased to announce its new name following completion of the requisite approvals including registration with ASIC and shareholder approval.

The Company intends to align its current business activities and corporate identity within a single name across the group.

The name change will also be supported by new branding and marketing efforts which not only clarifies the Company's new vision and mission, but also defines a new range of data-driven products, powered by our core drone-data capture capabilities.

The Company will commence trading on Tuesday, 13 June under ASX ticker code 'RKT'.

RocketDNA CEO Christopher Clark said: "Following the strong support at our recent AGM, we are excited to confirm our new corporate name and ticker code. This re-brand will align all our global divisions under a common identity as well as support our future marketing & investor relations strategy.

RocketDNA's mission is to democratise drone data that enables autonomous systems and empowers decision-makers within the Mining, Agriculture and Critical Asset industries.

Our new website, including details on our upcoming AI-enabled data products will be released soon and we encourage those who would like to be notified to register using the QR code below."

This announcement has been approved for release by Chris Clark. Executive Chairman and CEO of RocketDNA Ltd.
