

ASX Release

19 June 2023

Change of CEO

Bravura Solutions Limited (ASX: BVS) (Bravura or the Company) announces that Libby Roy will step down as CEO and Managing Director effective immediately and will remain with the Company until 30 June 2023 for handover and transition purposes.

The Board has commenced a global external executive search for a high calibre and experienced CEO to lead Bravura as a trusted and well-capitalised partner for its customers.

Andrew Russell will be Interim CEO until the new CEO is appointed. Mr Russell is currently an independent non-executive director and was previously CEO of Class Limited until it was acquired by Hub24 in 2022.

Bravura Chairman Matthew Quinn said “Bravura has deep intellectual property, market leading products and a valued, high quality customer base. Our new CEO will be selected based on their ability to provide exceptional service to our customers, lead our talented employees and create value for shareholders. We thank Libby for her time as CEO.”

Interim CEO Remuneration

As Interim CEO, Mr Russell’s remuneration will comprise Total Fixed Remuneration (base salary and superannuation) of $750,000 per annum.

Change of Joint Company Secretary

Effective immediately, the Company appoints Melissa Jones (nee Corbutt) as joint Company Secretary and Mr Montford steps down as Joint Company Secretary.
