ARR grew by 42% with growth across all products. Revenues increased by 3% over Q4, and non-deal revenues improved by 40%.

Importantly, we are making progress in executing our strategy to build a stronger Ansarada with over $100m of high quality ARR. The targeted investments in freemium¹¹ customer growth, new product development and leveraging our digital channel are beginning to deliver the anticipated returns.

Our new Sustainability solution, which radically simplifies and reduces the cost for companies to manage their Sustainability and ESG needs is gaining traction. We also delivered significant growth in the ecommerce customer acquisition channel, ending the quarter with 939 active customers, up 81% YoY. These achievements strengthen our business and build the foundations for sustainable growth.

We also continue to manage cash carefully. Q4 was the third consecutive cash flow positive quarter with over $3m of positive cash flow from operations (ADJ). With $21.6m of cash and zero debt on the balance sheet, we can continue to self-fund our growth ambitions.

We have started FY24 well and have a confident outlook. Our non-deal pipelines are improving, deferred revenues at record levels and we begin the year with our highest annual recurring revenue. I would like to thank all my colleagues at Ansarada for their immense contribution in FY23.”
