Investment Commentary

Pre-tax NTA decreased by 4.63 cents in October to $1.1123 resulting in a negative return of (4.0%) in what was another volatile and broad-based sell off for equities, with the ASX Small Ords again feeling the brunt of it falling by (5.45%) for the month. Overall, the Portfolio performed relatively well except for the performance of our core position in Janison Education which provided a soft Q1 update at their AGM along with an announcement regarding a CEO change that caused a panic and subsequent share price collapse of 41.5% (month on month), accounting for +70% of the Portfolio's negative monthly return. Whilst clearly disappointed with the soft Q1 update, we are supportive of the CEO/Board changes as we view them as important for the progress of the business. We view the current share price as an opportunity and look forward to the appointment of a well credentialed leader from the education sector to lead Janison as CEO. Other negative contributions came from SRG, Macmahon and Wide Open Agriculture which we exited during the period. Positive contributions came from Adore Beauty, which provided a relatively positive trading update, Count, BCI and Aurelia Metals, complemented by our market insurance position which added ~0.75% to Portfolio performance for the month. During the month we invested $5m into BCI via a convertible note providing an attractive structured opportunity to increase our exposure to the Mardie Project. Subject to conversion terms and using the month end Portfolio NAV, Ryder's notional exposure to BCI is ~14.7%. The Company buyback purchased 153,352 shares during the month at an average price of ~$0.95 per share and will remain active where the Manager sees meaningful NTA accretion. Portfolio activity included adding $350k to our investment in Lumos via a placement at $0.07 per share, taking exposure to 1.9%. Including the investment in the BCI note, the Portfolio invested ~$5.35m during the month and ongoing Portfolio trimming raised ~$2.33m resulting in cash falling by approximately $3m. Portfolio cash decreased from $10.5m (10.87%) to $7.3m (7.84%) after the investments noted above, noting we reduced our ETF position which was valued at $1.5m (1.6%) at month end.
