- 35.1 If there are less than 20 shareholders on the register of shareholders (counting joint holders of a share as one shareholder), a quorum for a meeting of shareholders is two shareholders entitled to vote. If there are 20 or more shareholders on the register of shareholders (counting joint holders of a share as one shareholder), a quorum is five shareholders entitled to vote.

- 35.2 In determining whether a quorum is present, the chairman must count shareholders, proxies, attorneys, body corporate representatives and any other persons entitled to vote. However, if a shareholder has more than one proxy, attorney or body corporate representative, the chairman must count only one of them. If an individual is attending both as a shareholder and as a proxy, attorney or body corporate representative, or in any other capacity, the chairman must count them only once.
- 35.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting:
- 35.3.1 if the meeting was called on the request of shareholders or by shareholders, the meeting is dissolved; and
- 35.3.2 any other meeting is adjourned to any day, time and place the Directors decide.
- 35.4 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for an adjourned meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

36. Chairman

- 36.1 The chairman of Directors is entitled to chair all meetings of shareholders.
- 36.2 If there is no chairman of Directors, or if the chairman is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the deputy chairman of Directors may chair the meeting. If there is no deputy chairman, or if the deputy chairman is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the Directors present must elect one of themselves to chair the meeting. If they do not do so, the shareholders present must elect a person to chair the meeting.

37. Regulation of meetings

- 37.1 Subject to the Corporations Act, the chairman may regulate the meeting of shareholders in any way consistent with this constitution. Without limitation, the chairman of a meeting of shareholders:
- 37.1.1 is responsible for the general conduct of, and the procedures to be adopted at, the meeting;
- 37.1.2 may make rulings or adjourn the meeting without putting a question (or any question) to the vote if that action is required to ensure the orderly conduct of the meeting;
- 37.1.3 may determine the procedures to be adopted for the casting or recording of votes;
- 37.1.4 may determine any dispute concerning the admission, validity or rejection of a vote at the meeting;

37.1.5 may terminate debate or discussion on any matter being considered at the meeting and require that matter to be put to a vote;

37.1.6 may refuse to allow debate or discussion on any matter which is not business referred to in the notice of meeting;

37.1.7 may refuse to allow any amendment to be moved to a resolution set out in the notice of meeting; and

37.1.8 may delegate to any person any power conferred by this clause 37.

37.2 The powers conferred on the chairman of a meeting of shareholders pursuant to this clause 37 shall not limit the powers otherwise conferred by law.

37.3 Unless the approval of the chairman of the meeting of shareholders is obtained, no person may move at any meeting of shareholders any resolution or any amendment of a resolution.

38. Adjournment and changes to general meetings

38.1 The chairman may adjourn a meeting of shareholders to any day, time and place.

38.2 The chairman must adjourn a meeting of shareholders if the shareholders able to vote and holding a majority of votes at the meeting agree or direct the chairman to do so. The chairman may adjourn the meeting to any day, time and place.

38.3 When a meeting is adjourned, new notice of the resumed meeting must be given if the meeting is adjourned for more than a month. Such notice may be given by announcement to the ASX or, subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, by any other manner determined by the Directors.

38.4 Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

38.5 If the Directors consider that:

38.5.1 a general meeting has become unnecessary;

38.5.2 the postponement of a general meeting is in the interests of shareholders;

38.5.3 the venue for a general meeting is no longer appropriate, convenient or practical; or

38.5.4 a change is otherwise necessary to conduct the general meeting efficiently, the Directors may:

38.5.5 change the venue for the general meeting;

38.5.6 cancel the general meeting;

38.5.7 postpone the general meeting; and/or

38.5.8 make any change they consider necessary to the efficient conduct of the general meeting.

38.6 The Directors must give notice of the postponement or cancellation to all persons entitled to receive notices from the Company by an announcement to the ASX or, subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, by any other manner determined by the Directors.

38.7 Clause 38.5 does not permit the Directors to cancel a meeting convened in accordance with the Corporations Act by a single Director, by shareholders, by the Directors on request of shareholders or to a meeting convened by a court unless the party which convened the meeting (or at the request of whom the meeting was convened) consents to the cancellation.

38.8 The only business that may be transacted at a general meeting, the holding of which is postponed, is the business specified in the original notice convening the meeting.

39. How shareholders make decisions at meetings

39.1 A meeting of shareholders makes a decision by passing a resolution. A resolution is passed if more than 50% of the votes cast by the shareholders entitled to vote are in favour of the resolution (unless the Corporations Act or the Listing Rules require a special resolution).

39.2 A special resolution is passed if:

39.2.1 the notice of the meeting sets out an intention to propose the special resolution and states the resolution; and 39.2.2 it is passed by at least 75% of the votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution.

40. How voting is carried out

40.1 Unless a poll is properly requested, a resolution put to the vote at a meeting of shareholders must be decided on a show of hands.

40.2 If a poll is properly requested, the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting.

40.3 A declaration by the chairman that a resolution is passed, or passed by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes, are sufficient evidence of that fact, unless proved incorrect.

41. Polls

41.1 A poll may be requested on any resolution.

41.2 A poll may be requested by:

41.2.1 at least five shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution;

41.2.2 shareholders with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll; or 41.2.3 the chairman.

41.3 A poll may be requested:

41.3.1 before a vote is taken;

41.3.2 before the voting results on a show of hands are declared; or 41.3.3 immediately after the voting results on a show of hands are declared.

41.4 A request for a poll may be withdrawn.

41.5 A poll requested on a matter other than the election of a chairman or the question of an adjournment must be taken when and how the chairman directs.

41.6 A poll on the election of a chairman or the question of an adjournment must be taken immediately.

41.7 A request for a poll does not prevent the meeting dealing with other business.

42. How many votes a shareholder has

42.1 Subject to the Listing Rules if the Company is listed, this constitution and any special rights or restrictions attached to a share, at a meeting of shareholders:

42.1.1 on a show of hands, each shareholder present has one vote; and

42.1.2 on a poll, each shareholder present or who has cast a Direct Vote has:

(a) one vote for each fully paid share they hold; and

(b) a fraction of a vote for each partly paid share they hold. The fraction must be equivalent to the proportion which the amount paid (not credited) is of the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited). Amounts paid in advance of a call are ignored, provided that, a shareholder who has cast a Direct Vote on a resolution will not be entitled to any additional votes on the resolution by virtue of that shareholder being present at the meeting in person or by proxy.

42.1.3 where the Directors have approved, consistently with the Corporations Act, other means (including electronic) for the casting and recording of votes by shareholders on any resolution to be put to a general meeting, every shareholder having the right to vote on the resolution has:

(a) one vote for each fully paid share they hold; and

(b) a fraction of a vote for each partly paid share they hold. The fraction must be equivalent to the proportion which the amount paid (not credited) is of the total amounts paid and payable

(excluding amounts credited). Amounts paid in advance of a call are ignored.

42.1.4 the Directors may, subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, determine that, at any general meeting or class meeting, a shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at that meeting is entitled to give their vote by a valid notice of their voting intention (a Direct Vote). A Direct Vote includes a vote delivered to the Company by post, fax, electronic or other means approved by the Directors. The Directors may specify the form, method and timing of giving a Direct Vote at a meeting in order for the vote to be valid and the manner in which the Direct Vote will be carried out.

42.1.5 if a shareholder casts a Direct Vote in accordance with this Constitution and any regulations, rules and procedures determined by the Directors from time to time, the Direct Vote will be as valid and binding for all intents and purposes as if the shareholder cast a vote at the meeting in person. Unless the Directors determine otherwise, a Direct Vote may not be withdrawn or altered once it is received by the Company.

42.2 In the case of an equality of votes, on a resolution at a meeting of shareholders (whether on a show of hands or on a poll), the chairman of the meeting does not have a casting vote in addition to any vote that the chairman of the meeting has in respect of that resolution.

42.3 If a share is held jointly and more than one shareholder votes the share, only the vote of the shareholder whose name appears first in the register of shareholders counts.

42.4 The parent or guardian of an infant shareholder may vote that infant's share, if the parent or guardian satisfies the Directors of the relationship or appointment before the meeting. If the infant's parent or guardian votes the share, the infant shareholder must not vote.

42.5 A person may vote a share if:

42.5.1 the person is entitled to be registered as the holder of the share because of a Transmission Event; and 42.5.2 the person satisfies the Directors of that entitlement before the meeting.

The shareholder must not vote a share if another person does so under this sub-clause.

42.6 A shareholder must not vote a share if:

42.6.1 a call or other amount is presently payable in respect of the share;

42.6.2 the shareholder is in breach of a Restriction Agreement in respect of the share; or 42.6.3 the Listing Rules or the Corporations Act require the Company to disregard the shareholder's vote in respect of the share.

- 42.7 The chairman must disregard any vote by a shareholder who is not entitled to vote.

43. Challenging a right to vote

- 43.1 A challenge to a right to vote at a meeting of shareholders may only be made:
- 43.1.1 before the meeting, to the Directors; or
 - 43.1.2 at the meeting, to the chairman of the meeting.
- 43.2 The challenge must be decided by the Directors or the chairman (as the case may be), which decision is final.

44. Proxies, attorneys and representatives

- 44.1 A shareholder, who is entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders, may vote:
- 44.1.1 on a show of hands:
 - (a) personally;
 - (b) by one proxy;
 - (c) by one attorney; or
 - (d) if a shareholder is a body corporate, by its representative, or by one proxy; or
 - 44.1.2 on a poll:
 - (a) personally;
 - (b) if the shareholder is entitled to cast two or more votes at the meeting, by not more than two proxies;
 - (c) by one attorney;
 - (d) if a shareholder is a body corporate, by its representative, or if the shareholder is entitled to cast two or more votes at the meeting, by not more than two proxies; or
 - (e) where the Directors have approved other means for the casting and recording votes (including a Direct Vote), in accordance with those approved means of casting and recording votes.
- 44.2 A proxy, attorney or representative need not be a shareholder of the Company.
- 44.3 A shareholder may appoint a proxy, attorney or representative for all or for particular meetings of shareholders.
- 44.4 An appointment of an attorney or representative (including electronic) must be in a form approved by the Directors.

44.5 An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is in a form approved by the Directors and it contains the following information:

44.5.1 the shareholder's name and address;

44.5.2 the Company's name;

44.5.3 the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and 44.5.4 the meetings at which the appointment may be used.

The chairman may decide to accept a proxy even if it contains only some of that information.

44.6 Where a notice of meeting provides for electronic lodgement of proxies, a proxy lodged at the electronic address specified in the notice is taken to have been received at the registered office and signed by the shareholder if there is compliance with the requirements set out in the notice.

44.7 Unless otherwise specified in the appointment, the proxy, attorney or representative may:

44.7.1 agree to short notice for the meeting;

44.7.2 even if the appointment directs how to vote on a particular resolution:

(a) vote on an amendment to the particular resolution, a motion not to put the particular resolution or any similar motion; and

(b) vote on a procedural motion, including a motion to elect the chairman, to vacate the chair or adjourn the meeting;

44.7.3 speak at the meeting in respect of any resolution at a meeting in which the proxy, attorney or representative (as applicable) may vote;

44.7.4 vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and

44.7.5 request, or join in a request, for a poll on any resolution at a meeting of shareholders in which the proxy may vote.

44.8 If a person represents two or more shareholders, on a show of hands that person has only one vote for those shareholders voting in favour of a resolution and one vote for those voting against a resolution.

44.9 If a shareholder appoints two proxies or two attorneys in one instrument and both are present, on a show of hands only the first named proxy or attorney may vote.

44.10 The appointment may specify the proportion or number of votes that the proxy or attorney may exercise. If the shareholder appoints two proxies or two attorneys and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the shareholder's votes each proxy or attorney may exercise, on a poll each proxy or attorney may exercise half of the votes.

- 44.11 A later appointment of a proxy or attorney revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.
- 44.12 An appointment may specify the way a proxy or attorney is to vote on a particular resolution. A proxy may vote only as directed.
- 44.13 An appointment of a proxy is effective only if the Company receives the appointment (and any authority under which the appointment was signed or certified copy of the authority) at least 48 hours before the meeting or resumed meeting, unless the Directors decide to reduce that time. For the avoidance of doubt, where a meeting is resumed, any proxies received by the Company only apply to the items of business of the meeting which have not been resolved. The Company receives an appointment or authority when it is received at any of the following:
- 44.13.1 the Company's registered office;
 - 44.13.2 a fax number at the Company's registered office; or
 - 44.13.3 a place, fax number or electronic address specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting.
- These requirements also apply to an appointment of an attorney.
- 44.14 Unless the Company receives written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of a meeting, a vote by a proxy, attorney or representative is valid even if:
- 44.14.1 there is a Transmission Event in respect of the shareholder;
 - 44.14.2 the appointment of the proxy, attorney or representative is revoked;
 - 44.14.3 the shareholder revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a third party; or
 - 44.14.4 the shareholder becomes an externally-administered body corporate.
- 44.15 A vote by a proxy, attorney or representative is valid even if the shareholder transfers the share for which the appointment was given, if the transfer is not registered at the time of the meeting (or at any earlier time fixed by the Directors so that shareholders at that time are taken to be shareholders at the time of the meeting).
- 44.16 A proxy or attorney may take part in a meeting of shareholders even if the appointor or representative is present. However, if the appointor or representative votes on a resolution, the proxy or attorney must not vote.
- 44.17 An appointment of a proxy or attorney for a meeting is valid at an adjourned or postponed meeting.

44A. Class meetings

- 44A.1 The provisions of this Constitution relating to general meetings apply so far as they are capable of application and with any necessary changes to every separate meeting of the holders of a class of shares, except that a quorum is constituted by at least two shareholders who, between them, hold or represent not less than 10% of the issued shares of the class (unless only one person holds all the shares of the class, in which case that person constitutes a quorum).

45. Proportional takeovers

- 45.1 If offers are made under a proportional takeover bid for securities of the Company:
- 45.1.1 the registration of a transfer giving effect to a takeover contract for the bid is prohibited unless and until a resolution (an approving resolution) to approve the bid is passed in accordance with this clause;
 - 45.1.2 a person (other than the bidder or an associate of the bidder) who, as at the end of the day on which the first offer under the bid was made, held bid class securities is entitled to vote on an approving resolution;
 - 45.1.3 the Directors may determine whether an approving resolution is voted on:
 - (a) at a meeting, convened and conducted by the Company, of the persons entitled to vote on the resolution; or
 - (b) by means of a postal ballot conducted by the Company in accordance with the procedure set out in this clause; and
 - 45.1.4 an approving resolution that has been voted on is taken to have been passed if the proportion that the number of votes in favour of the resolution bears to the total number of votes on the resolution is greater than 50%, and otherwise is taken to have been rejected.
- 45.2 The provisions that apply to a general meeting of the Company apply, with such modifications as the Directors decide are necessary, to a meeting convened under this clause.
- 45.3 In a postal ballot:
- 45.3.1 the Company must send a notice of postal ballot and ballot paper, to all persons holding shares in the relevant class, at least 14 days (or any shorter period the Directors decide) before the ballot closing date;
 - 45.3.2 non-receipt of a notice of postal ballot or ballot paper, or accidental failure to give a notice of postal ballot or ballot paper to a shareholder entitled to receive them, does not invalidate the postal ballot or any resolution passed under the postal ballot;

- 45.3.3 the notice of postal ballot must contain the text of the proposed resolution and the ballot closing date, and may contain any other information the Directors consider appropriate;
- 45.3.4 each ballot paper must specify the name of the shareholder entitled to vote;
- 45.3.5 a postal ballot is only valid if the ballot paper is properly completed and:
- (a) if the shareholder is an individual, signed by the individual or a duly authorised attorney; or
 - (b) if the shareholder is a corporation, executed by the corporation in any way permitted by its constitution or the Corporations Act or by a duly authorised officer or duly authorised attorney;
- 45.3.6 a postal ballot is only valid if the Company receives the ballot paper (and any authority under which the ballot paper is signed or a certified copy of the authority) before the close of business on the ballot closing date at the registered office or share registry of the Company or any other place specified for that purpose in the notice of postal ballot; and
- 45.3.7 a person may revoke a postal ballot vote by notice received by the Company before the close of business on the ballot closing date.

Part 6 – Directors

46. Number of Directors

- 46.1 There must be at least three Directors and at most nine Directors.
- 46.2 The Company in general meeting may increase or reduce the number of Directors.

47. Appointment of Directors

- 47.1 The Directors may appoint a Director.
- 47.2 The Company in general meeting may appoint a Director.
- 47.3 A person is eligible for election as a Director at a general meeting only if:
- 47.3.1 the person is a Director retiring under the next clause and notifies the Company that he or she is available for re-election; or
 - 47.3.2 the person has signed a consent to nomination and lodged it at the Company's registered office.

The Company must accept these notices and nominations up to 30 Business Days (the same applies in the case of a meeting that shareholders requested the Directors to call) before the general meeting. The Directors may decide to accept these notices and nominations closer to the date of the general meeting. Subject to the Corporations Act, an employee of the Company may be appointed a Director and a Director of the Company may be appointed an employee of the Company.

48. Compulsory retirement

48.1 There must be an election of Directors at each annual general meeting of the Company. This can be satisfied by one or more of the following, so long as the number of Directors determined in accordance with clause 46.1 is not exceeded:

48.1.1 any Director appointed by the Directors since the last annual general meeting;

48.1.2 any Director (not counting the managing Director) for whom this would be the third annual general meeting since their last appointment or three years since their last appointment (whichever is the longer); or 48.1.3 if no person or Director is standing for election or re-election in accordance with clause 48.1.1 or 48.1.2, then the Director who must retire and submit himself or herself for re-election under this clause 48.1 is that Director who has been longest in office since their initial appointment or their last election (whichever is later).

48.2 This clause does not apply to the managing Director.

49. Vacation of office

A Director ceases to be a Director if:

49.1 the Corporations Act so provides;

49.2 the Director resigns by notice to the Company;

49.3 the Company in general meeting removes the person as a Director;

49.4 the Director is absent, without the consent of the Directors, from all Directors' meetings over any six month period;

49.5 the Director becomes mentally incapable and the Director's estate or property has had a personal representative or trustee appointed to administer it;

49.6 the Director automatically retires under the previous clause; or

49.7 the Director is an executive Director, the Director ceases to be an executive of the Company.

50. Alternate Directors

50.1 A Director may appoint an alternate for a specified period if the alternate is approved by a majority of Directors.

50.2 An appointment is only effective if:

50.2.1 it is in writing;

- 50.2.2 both the alternate and the appointor signs it; and
- 50.2.3 the Company is given notice of it.
- 50.3 The appointor may terminate the alternate's appointment at any time.
- 50.4 A termination is effective only if:
 - 50.4.1 it is in writing;
 - 50.4.2 the appointor signs it; and
 - 50.4.3 the Company is given notice of it.
- 50.5 The alternate need not be a shareholder or Director of the Company.
- 50.6 The alternate is entitled to notice of Directors' meetings.
- 50.7 If the appointor is not present, the alternate may:
 - 50.7.1 attend the Directors' meeting, be counted in the quorum, speak, and vote in the place of the appointor; and
 - 50.7.2 exercise any other powers (except the power to appoint an alternate) that the appointor may exercise.
- 50.8 A person may only act as an alternate for one Director.
- 50.9 If the appointor ceases to be a Director, the alternate cannot exercise the appointor's powers.
- 50.10 Where:
 - 50.10.1 an appointor ceases to be a Director; and
 - 50.10.2 that appointor's alternate purports to do an act as a Director, that act is as valid, in relation to a person dealing with the Company in good faith and for value and without actually knowing that the appointor has ceased to be a Director, as if the appointor had not ceased to be a Director.

- 50.11 The Company may pay an alternate remuneration in the amount the relevant appointor decides, in reduction of the appointor's remuneration.
- 50.12 While acting as a Director, an alternate is an officer of the Company and not the agent of the appointor.

51. Remuneration

- 51.1 The Company may remunerate each Director as the Directors decide, but the total amount of the remuneration of non-executive Directors may not exceed the amount fixed by the Company in general meeting for that purpose (if any).
- 51.2 A Director's remuneration may be any combination of:

51.2.1 a stated salary;

51.2.2 a fixed sum for each attendance at a Directors' meeting; and 51.2.3 if a non-executive Director, a share of the amount fixed under clause 51.1 of this clause, divided among them as the Directors decide and in default equally.

51.3 A Director's remuneration must not include a commission on, or percentage of, operating revenue.

51.4 A stated salary or a share of a fixed amount accrues from day-to-day.

51.5 The Company must also pay travelling and other expenses that a Director properly incurs on the Company's business.

51.6 If a Director performs extra or special services for the Company, the Company may pay to the Director any special remuneration the Directors decide, in addition to the Director's normal remuneration.

51.7 The Company may pay a former Director, or the estate of a Director who dies in office, a benefit for past services as the Directors decide. This must not exceed the amount permitted by the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules if the Company is listed.

51.8 The Company may establish or support superannuation or similar funds for the Directors, as the Directors decide or as required by law.

52. Share qualification

52.1 A Director need not be a shareholder of the Company.

52.2 A Director, who is not a shareholder, may still attend and speak at meetings of shareholders.

53. Director's interests

53.1 Subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules if the Company is listed, a Director may:

53.1.1 hold an office or place of profit (except as auditor) in the Company, on any terms the Directors decide;

53.1.2 hold an office or otherwise be interested in any related body corporate or other body corporate in which the Company is interested; and 53.1.3 retain benefits for doing so.

53.2 Subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules if the Company is listed:

53.2.1 a Director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a Directors' meeting must not be present during the consideration of the matter and may not vote on the matter;

53.2.2 a Director (or a Spouse, parent or child of a Director or child of a Spouse, or any entity in which a Director or a Spouse, parent or child of a Director or child of a Spouse has an interest) may contract or make an arrangement with the Company (or a related body corporate or a body corporate in which the Company is interested) in any matter in any capacity;

53.2.3 a Director may sign for the Company, or attest the affixing of the common seal to, any document in respect of that contract or arrangement;

53.2.4 a Director may retain benefits under that contract or arrangement; and 53.2.5 the Company cannot avoid that contract or arrangement because of the Director's interest.

Part 7 - Proceedings of Directors

54. Circulating resolutions

54.1 The Directors may pass a resolution without a Directors' meeting being held, if all Directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document.

54.2 Separate copies of a document may be used for signing by Directors, if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.

54.3 The resolution is passed when the last of the Directors who approves the resolution signs.

54.4 Passage of the resolution must be recorded in the Company's minute book.

55. Meetings

55.1 The Directors may meet, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they decide.

55.2 A Directors' meeting may be held using any technology consented to by all the Directors. The consent may be a standing one. A Director may only withdraw consent within a reasonable period before the meeting.

55.3 If a Directors' meeting is held by telephone link-up or other contemporaneous audio or audio visual communication, a Director is taken to be present unless the Director states to the chairman that the Director is disconnecting his or her telephone or communication device.

56. Calling meetings

56.1 Any Director may call a Directors' meeting.

56.2 On the request of any Director, the company secretary must call a Directors' meeting.

57. Notice

- 57.1 Unless otherwise agreed, reasonable notice of a Directors' meeting must be given to each Director and each alternate.
- 57.2 The notice must:
- 57.2.1 specify the day, time and place of the meeting;
 - 57.2.2 state the general nature of the business to be transacted; and
 - 57.2.3 be given at least 48 hours before the meeting, unless all Directors otherwise agree.
- 57.3 Non-receipt of notice of a meeting, or failure to give notice of a meeting to a Director or an alternate, does not invalidate anything done at the meeting if:
- 57.3.1 the failure was accidental;
 - 57.3.2 the Director or alternate gives notice to the Company that he or she waives the notice or agrees to the thing done at the meeting; or
 - 57.3.3 the Director or alternate attends the meeting.

58. Quorum

- 58.1 The quorum for a Directors' meeting is two Directors, unless the Directors otherwise decide.
- 58.2 In determining whether a quorum is present, the chairman must count alternates. If a Director is also an alternate, the chairman must count the Director as a Director and separately as an alternate. Despite anything else in this clause 58.2, there must always be at least two persons actually present to form a quorum.
- 58.3 In determining whether a quorum is present, the chairman must not count a Director if he or she is not entitled to vote on a particular resolution under the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules or under this constitution.
- 58.4 If there are not enough Directors in office to form a quorum, the remaining Directors may act only:
- 58.4.1 to increase the number of Directors to a quorum;
 - 58.4.2 to call a general meeting of the Company; or
 - 58.4.3 in an emergency.

59. Chairman and deputy chairman

- 59.1 The Directors may elect a Director as chairman for any period they decide.
- 59.2 The Directors may elect a Director as deputy chairman for any period they decide.

- 59.3 The Directors may remove the chairman or deputy chairman.
- 59.4 The Directors may decide that either office is an extra or special service for the Company, for the purpose of deciding special remuneration.
- 59.5 The chairman is entitled to chair each Directors' meeting.
- 59.6 If there is no chairman, or if the chairman is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the deputy chairman may chair the Directors' meeting.
