Quarterly Cashflow Report for quarter ended 31 March 2024

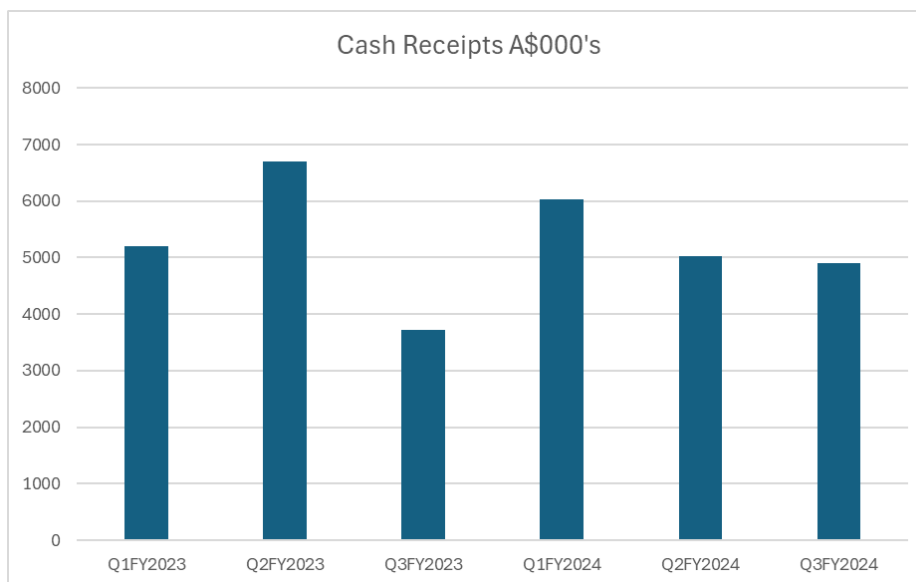

Netlinkz Limited (ASX:NET) and its controlled entities (“Netlinkz” or “the Company”) is pleased to provide its Appendix 4C for the quarter ended 31 March 2024 (3rd Quarter, March quarter) along with the following operational update for its key business divisions.

Third Quarter highlights

- Netlinkz operating revenue of $4.0m for Q3 FY2024
- Satellites Division sales for the quarter contributed $1.0m
- Agreement to sell Starlink hardware-on-hand in April 2024 to be collected post 31 March quarter end. which will result in sales of in excess of $4.8m in Qtr4.
- Significant reduction in operational costs of the Satellite Division ~$2.0m annualized.
- Continued support from debt providers (~$3.0m draw-down facility) and refinancing of Juel facility (~$2.3m).

Operations

The Company’s revenue for the quarter was in line with the previous quarter, and YTD revenue is largely in line with the prior year. The Company has a number of contracts executed for sale of Starlink units, where recognition of revenue is dependent on receipt of cash. Notwithstanding cash receipts for the quarter were in line with the previous quarter and a 32% increase over the same quarter in FY2023.

Subsequent to quarter end the Company has entered into a binding agreement to sell the balance of its Starlink hardware with payment to be received in Q4 FY2024. As part of its reseller agreement with Starlink, the Company was required to purchase 2,500 units from Starlink at the beginning of 2023 ("Initial Purchase Units"). The sale of the Starlink hardware by the Company at the end of Q3, results in the Company eliminating the significant holding and storage costs of the Initial Purchase Units. The Company is now embarking on a process to further reduce its logistic and administration costs without causing any adverse effect on its current and future pipeline of sales.

By division, SSI revenues were in line with the previous quarter, the China operating revenue was behind previous quarter given Chinese new year, and the Satellite division (Starlink) pleasingly showed steady growth.

The Company has made a significant investment in product development over the year to date which has placed a strain on resources. New product development is near completion, the Company has now made the appropriate cost reductions (~$2 million pa), and has streamlined its VSN business to focus on sales in South-east Asia.

The Company has restructured its debt facilities to extend repayment dates and has a further facility of $3 million available to draw-down if required.

The Executive team is committed to continuing to pursue cost savings, reducing debt, and returning to cash flow positive operations. A detailed management update will be provided upon lodging the Interim Financial Report.

Board and Management Restructure

With the support of all Board members the Company undertook a program of significant cost reductions during the quarter. This included a reduction in the Board from 6 to 3 members, with the agreement of Geoffrey Raby, James Stickland and Hakkan Eriksson to resign from the Board. The Board takes this opportunity to thank those directors who have resigned for their service to Netlinkz.

The Interim Financial Report for the half year ended 31 December 23 – Appendix 4D

The audit review of the Interim Financial Report (Appendix 4D) has been completed. The Report is being finalized and is expected to be signed and lodged with the ASIC and ASX by mid-May, with the ASX subsequently determining the re-listing of the Company.

Payments to Related Parties

The Company paid $345,000 during the quarter to directors for salaries, superannuation and directors fees.

This report has been approved by the Board for release to the ASX.

8.6.1	Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not?

Answer: No. The Company expects to have even or positive net operating cash flows in the new year. The Company has commenced to significantly reduce its operating expenses with immediate effect.

The company will continue to work and sell broadband satellite services (LEO and GEO) with its partner network. Satellite broadband is a key sales channel for Netlinkz's VSN products.

Importantly, the operational cost savings generated from executed changes are significant (~$2.0m pa) which will allow the company to move to cash flow breakeven.

In addition, Netlinkz is in discussion with a global satellite broadband provider to expand its offering in South East Asia. This will ensure further growth in sales for the VSN product.

8.6.2 Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?

Answer: The Company has access to debt and Capital markets. The Company has the support of its current lenders; with a drawdown facility (~$3m) currently available.

Operationally, The Company has significantly reduced its staff overheads and operating costs and will complete the sale of its balance of inventory (cash inflow of ~$4.8m) expected Qtr4 2024.

8.6.3 Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer: Yes. Coupled with its finance options detailed above and whilst Netlinkz continues to develop its VSN product offering, its other operating subsidiaries (specifically, SSI and its operations in China) are operating profitably, cash flow positive, or break-even. The growth of these operations will continue in executing the Group's strategy.

Note: where item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.6.1, 8.6.2 and 8.6.3 above must be answered.
