Price query

We refer to ASX's price query dated 5 June 2024, and respond as follows:

1. Is JAT aware of any information concerning it that has not been announced to the market which, if known by some in the market, could explain the recent trading in its securities?

No

2. If the answer to question 1 is "yes".

(a) Is JAT relying on Listing Rule 3.1A not to announce that information under Listing Rule 3.1? Please note that the recent trading in JAT's securities would suggest to ASX that such information may have ceased to be confidential and therefore JAT may no longer be able to rely on Listing Rule 3.1A. Accordingly, if the answer to this question is "yes", you need to contact us immediately to discuss the situation.

(b) Can an announcement be made immediately? Please note, if the answer to this question is "no", you need to contact us immediately to discuss requesting a trading halt (see below).

(c) If an announcement cannot be made immediately, why not and when is it expected that an announcement will be made?

Not applicable

3. If the answer to question 1 is "no", is there any other explanation that JAT may have for the recent trading in its securities?

Since the change of management and new Board appointments last year JAT has steadily improved its business and operations by increasing sales channels, improving productivity and managing costs. These improving trends in the business' operations has been communicated to the market through various quarterly and recent Result announcements, .

In addition, and as announced to the market on 24 April 2024, JAT has received a favourable judgement in the Sunnya litigation case against Sunnya's former directors. This is a good outcome for the business.

Further, JAT believes that the recent purchase off market by the Managing Director of a significant amount of shares from another shareholder, as announced on 4 June 2024, may be seen by the market as a sign of confidence in the business.

JAT expects these business conditions to continue and while there are potential headwinds in the China market the relationship between Australia and China is stabilising and JAT is confident in the ongoing improved financial performance of its business.

As a result of this the share price in JAT has been steadily rising.
