4Q FY24 results update

Zip continues to deliver profitable growth driven by outstanding performance in the Americas

Zip Co Limited (ASX: ZIP) (“Zip”, or the “Company”) today announced its fourth quarter results for the three-month period ending 30 June 2024 (“4Q24”).

The Company is also providing an update in relation to full year Normalised Group Cash EBTDA (“Cash EBTDA”), given the strong financial performance in 4Q24. For the quarter, Cash EBTDA is expected to be in the range of $22m to $25m which will bring the FY24 Cash EBTDA to an expected range of $67m to $70m.

As updated in 3Q24, Zip will be accruing a payment for staff incentives in the form of cash for FY24. When assessing core operating performance against FY23, the underlying Cash EBTDA is expected to be in the range of $77m to $80m. This compares to a full year underlying Cash EBTDA loss of $48m in FY23. Zip will provide more detail at the FY24 result on 27 August 2024.

Q4 GROUP FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Transaction volume (“TTV”) of $2.6b (up 19.0% vs 4Q23)
- Revenue of $223.6m (up 22.1% vs 4Q23)
- Revenue margin of 8.6% (vs 8.5% in 4Q23)
- Transactions of 19.7m (up 8.8% vs 4Q23)
- Net bad debts, approximately 1.4% of TTV (vs 1.9% of TTV in 4Q23)

- Merchants on Zip’s platforms increased to 79.3k (up 9.6% vs 4Q23)
- All remaining Senior Convertible Notes were converted during the period, further simplifying Zip’s capital structure
- Reduction in Zip’s corporate debt facility to $130.0m following a $20.0m repayment
- Continued recycling of capital with $600.0m of Australian receivables refinanced during the period

CEO UPDATE

Zip Group CEO and Managing Director, Cynthia Scott said:

“In another strong performance, the team delivered its fourth consecutive quarter of positive Cash EBTDA. As a result, underlying Cash EBTDA for the full year is now expected to be in the range of $77m to $80m, a $125m-$128m turnaround on the Underlying Cash EBTDA loss of $48m in FY23.

When compared to 4Q23, Group revenue for the quarter grew by 22.1% and Group transaction volumes grew by a substantial 19%. Cash transaction margin improved 80 basis points versus 4Q23 to 3.9%, reinforcing the strength of our business model.

The US continued its outstanding performance achieving TTV growth of 42.6% and revenue growth of 46.8% and in ANZ, the yield on receivables increased to 18.4%. In line with our operational excellence focus, we further strengthened our balance sheet, extinguishing all outstanding Zip Senior Convertible Notes during the quarter. We remain focused on continuing to provide even greater value to our customers and merchants.”

Credit Performance

US monthly cohorts, 120 day loss performance as a % of cohort TTV

Key highlights in the Americas included:

- Very strong growth with TTV of US$1,158.0m up 40.7% vs 4Q23 and revenue of US$80.2m (+44.8% vs 4Q23) driven by continued growth from existing customers in higher-margin channels such as the app
- Revenue margins of 6.9%, flat vs 4Q23
- Monthly US cohort loss rates in 4Q24 are now expected to deliver losses of approximately 1.3% of TTV
- During the period Zip appointed Joe Heck as US CEO (who commenced in the role on 15 July), with Larry Diamond assuming the role of US Chairman. Kevin Moss also joined the Zip Board as a Non-Executive Director, based in the US
- Appointed WNBA athlete Kelsey Plum as a brand ambassador for Zip. As part of the partnership, Plum served as the Grand Marshal at Zip's 250 NASCAR Xfinity Series at Sonoma Raceway in June
- Zip noted the CFPB's interpretive rule declaring that BNPL lenders meet the regulatory definitions of "card issuers" who issue "credit cards" in the form of digital user accounts, and therefore must provide consumers certain legal protections that apply to conventional credit cards. Zip believes that its operations will fully comply with this rule on or before the effective date, and/or as it may subsequently be modified following the public consultation period which is still open

<sup>5</sup> Net bad debts is calculated as annualised net write-offs in the months of June and March (net write-offs for the month x 12) over opening receivables for the month.

Increase in net bad debts during June driven by seasonality, softening in the external environment and is exaggerated given reducing receivables balance

(% of AU consumer receivables)<sup>5</sup>

Key highlights in ANZ included:

- Revenue of $102.1m, up 1.8% vs 4Q23
- Revenue margins increased by 140 basis points vs 4Q23 to 12.0%
- The yield on the Zip AU receivables increased to 18.4% and the excess spread increased year on year to 5.4% in June
- We saw continued customer uptake of Zip Plus during the quarter, with financial and engagement metrics continuing to be above expectations
- After successfully focusing on margins and setting the business for a higher for longer interest rate environment, Zip AU is now focused on profitable growth and early initiatives have seen MTUs increase by 8.5% for June versus March
- Zip welcomed the Federal Government’s announcement regarding the introduction of new Buy Now Pay Later legislation in Australia. Zip has been supportive of these reforms and the introduction of these standards which are aligned with Zip’s existing practices. Zip holds an Australian Credit Licence and already conducts credit and affordability checks on its customers. In addition, it already offers two regulated products under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act - Zip Money and Zip Plus
