MCS Services (ASX:MSG) - Request for Voluntary Suspension

Pursuant to ASX Listing rule 17.2, MCS Services Ltd (Company) requests that a voluntary suspension be imposed by ASX in respect of its ordinary shares.

In accordance with ASX Listing rule 17.2 the Company provides the following information:

- Reason for voluntary suspension - the reason for the request for suspension is to allow the Company to seek to finalise a potential transaction comprising a restructure and re-compliance with chapters 1 and 2 of the ASX Listing Rules which would result in an announcement to the market with respect to the potential transaction under ASX Listing Rule 11.1.
- Duration of the suspension - the Company expects that the suspension will remain in place until the Company has complied with the procedures outlined in section 2.10 of Guidance Note 12 in relation to the potential transaction.
- Termination of the suspension – the Company anticipates that the suspension will cease upon its releasing an announcement in respect of the proposed transaction.
- No reason – the Company is not aware of any reason the suspension should not be granted.
- Further information – the Company is not aware of any other information to inform the market about the suspension.
