This facility, provided by Malaysia's technology financier, Malaysia Debt Ventures Berhad (MDV), will primarily be used to enable Xamble to offer early payments to its creators, further differentiating the Xamble platform in the market. Xamble Executive Chairman, Ganesh Kumar Bangah, said: "We are pleased to have secured this factoring facility which will allow us to launch this important creator financing initiative. Early payment financing for creator or influencer content is an exciting development in the Southeast Asian influencer marketing sector and will be an important key additional differentiator for Xamble in this growing market. It will not only allow our creators early access to funds but will help us to deliver on our strategy of growing and strengthening our creator base in existing and new markets across Southeast Asia and beyond."

The facility covers a select range of approved Nuffnang factored customers. The material terms of the facility are attached as Appendix 1 to this announcement.
