A brief explanation of any of the figures reported above

The Group recorded $2,216,929 of revenue for the current year (2023: $3,095,724). The reduction in revenue was mainly attributable to customers delaying their commitment to purchases due to their uncertainty of the economic situation arising from higher interest rates, the slowing down of economies across our major markets as well as the impact of the voluntary administration process on K-TIG Limited and its Australian subsidiary, Keyhole TIG Pty Ltd during the period.

Loss from ordinary activities for the Group after providing for income tax amounted to $295,346 (30 June 2023: $6,101,738). The reduced loss during the period was mainly attributable to the accounting treatment associated with debt forgiveness during the period.

K-TIG continued working with existing and prospective customers in the defence and industrial sectors to demonstrate the advantages of keyhole TIG welding to their applications. In addition, K-TIG continues to invest in R&D to expand the range of metals that can be used utilising the K-TIG technology.
