

THE STAR

ASX Announcement

4 September 2024

MARKET UPDATE

The Star Entertainment Group Limited (ASX: SGR) (The Star or the Company) notes multiple media articles in respect of various matters including its financial and liquidity position and the implications of the report by Adam Bell SC following the 2024 Independent Inquiry into The Star, which was released to the Company and the public on 30 August 2024.

The Star is currently reviewing its financial and liquidity position with various advisers in the context of seeking to finalise its preliminary financial report for the financial year ended 30 June 2024 (FY24), including holding discussions with various stakeholders in relation to its liquidity position in light of adverse trading and other conditions. The Company confirms that the advice being provided has extended, from time to time, to considering the application of provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (including the safe harbour provisions).

The Company is working to finalise its FY24 preliminary financial report, although the timing of its release has not been finalised.

The Star will provide a further update in respect of its financial and liquidity position in conjunction with the release of its FY24 preliminary financial report. Upon release of the FY24 preliminary financial report, the Company's shares would resume trading in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules.
