Lumos Appoints Thermo Fisher Scientific as US Distributor for FebriDx®

MELBOURNE, Australia (16 September 2024) – Lumos Diagnostics (ASX: LDX), (“Lumos” or the “Company”) a leader in rapid, point-of-care (POC) diagnostic technologies, has signed an agreement with Fisher Healthcare, a part of Thermo Fisher Scientific, to distribute FebriDx® in the United States (US).

FebriDx® is a rapid point-of-care (POC) respiratory test which delivers results in 10 minutes from a fingerstick blood sample. In July 2023, the US Food and Drug Administration cleared FebriDx® to be marketed in the US as an aid in the diagnosis of bacterial acute respiratory infection and differentiation from non-bacterial etiology. The test has been cleared for use by healthcare professionals with patients presenting in urgent care or emergency care settings and is intended to be used in conjunction with clinical signs and symptoms, including other clinical and laboratory findings, to evaluate patients for acute respiratory infection.

“We are very pleased to announce this partnership with Fisher Healthcare for FebriDx® distribution.,” said Doug Ward, CEO and Managing Director for Lumos Diagnostics. “We look forward to working together to accelerate the growth of FebriDx® via their network of customers across the US.”
