

ASX and NZX Release

---

12 December 2024

ACCC proceedings against Ventia

Ventia Services Group Limited (ASX: VNT) (Ventia) acknowledges the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) media release published today stating that it has started civil proceedings in the Federal Court against Ventia and two of its employees, alleging contraventions of the Australian competition law provisions.

Ventia is reviewing the detail of the allegations and at this stage does not intend to comment further on the proceedings or the ACCC's media statement.

Ventia is committed to ethical business practices and seeks to uphold the highest standards of governance and risk management in all our operations. Ventia will continue to focus on delivering high-quality services to all customers.
