Transforming for Growth

Appointment of Mr Roy McKelvie

The Company is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Roy McKelvie as Independent, Non-Executive Chairman effective today, who will replace Mr Hugh Bradlow. Mr McKelvie's experience both investing in and leading growth phase businesses will be crucial to RocketBoots as it enters a major scaling phase with large customer contracting decisions approaching.

Mr McKelvie is well placed to provide corporate and public markets support during the Company's next phase of international expansion, having over 25 years' experience in private equity and financial markets in the US, UK, continental Europe, Asia and Australia. He has worked and consulted to companies across multiple sectors including financial services, resources, retail, business services and FMCG.

Mr McKelvie is currently Chairman at WageSafe, Pathify Holdings Inc, Infocus Wealth Management and Encompass Corporation. Prior to this, he was CEO of Transfield Holdings (previously ASX listed), MD and CEO of Gresham Private Equity, and MD and Asian Head of Deutsche Bank Capital Partners.

He has a BSc in Production Engineering from the University of Strathclyde and an MBA from the University of Edinburgh Business School.

RocketBoots Board of Directors would like to express their deep gratitude to Mr Bradlow for his services to the Company and as founding Chair. The Board thanks him for his substantial contribution taking RocketBoots to this point as we approach a material growth phase.

Mr McKelvie's key employment terms are described in Appendix A.

CEO & Board Remuneration update

As a part of the transition for growth, the Company undertook a review of the remuneration package of the current Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Mr Joel Rappolt and the Board. The review focused on how best to align delivery of Company milestones with value to shareholders and reflects that no increases have occurred since IPO in 2021. As a result of the review, the Board confirms that the CEO's total remuneration package has changed, effective as at 27 December 2024. Mr Rappolt's new remuneration package is set out in Appendix B and the Board's, which is subject to shareholder approval, set out in Appendix A.

Placement Details

Shares will be placed with sophisticated investors from a Placement raising $500k (before costs). 5,882,352 fully paid ordinary shares are to be issued under the Company's existing ASX Listing Rule 7.1 capacity (New Shares). The New Shares will rank pari passu with the Company's existing fully paid ordinary shares. Taylor Collison Limited acted as sole lead manager to the Placement and received 6.0% (excluding GST) on proceeds raised and 500,000 options at a $0.12 exercise price with an expiry date of 17 December 2027. The timeline of activities associated with the Placement are outlined in Table 1.

ROC confirms the issue of securities is subject to a s713 transaction-specific prospectus.

The Placement issue price of $0.085 per share represents:

- 2.3% discount to the closing price of ROC shares on Friday, 13 December 2024 ($0.087);
- 0.3% discount to the 15-day volume weighted average price (VWAP)

Use of Funds

The Placement proceeds will be utilised for general working capital purposes (including the costs of the Offer), which will support sales and customer initiatives with respect to executing the Company's international expansion strategy.

Commenting on the capital raise focused on delivering international expansion, RocketBoots incoming Chairman, Roy McKelvie, said:

"I'm delighted to be joining RocketBoots in this capacity. Having done my due diligence, I am excited about the opportunity in front of the Company; The software works, the technology stack is scalable and the customer pipeline is incredibly strong. I'm joining the company to throw my support behind the business, including cornerstoning this capital raise."
