Quarter Highlights from the CEO

In the past quarter we achieved what we set out to achieve by delivering on key commitments and building a foundation for the next stage of growth.

Following a momentous year of expansion, Q3 began by rolling up our sleeves and doing the hard, behind-the-scenes work needed to prepare Vinyl Group for its next act. In January we completed our $7.2M ANREO, which shored up the balance sheet and provided critical funding for acquisitions announced last year. Chief among these was the acquisition of Concrete Playground, which completed on 28 February and saw the full integration of its team into Vinyl Media by quarter-end.

February marked the official launch of Vinyl Media, consolidating The Brag Media, Mediaweek, Funkified, and our newly acquired Refinery29 Australia licence under one powerful umbrella. In short order, Vinyl Media made its presence felt: we secured a new commercial agreement with Genius to represent their AU/NZ ad inventory, and Mediaweek ranked #1 in Australia for trade media unique readership.

This was also the quarter we formalised our internal structure. Vinyl Group is now a two-division company: Vinyl Media and our technology/e-commerce group. Each division has dedicated leadership and a sharpened focus, allowing us to better manage resources, reduce costs, and enhance accountability. It's a real maturation moment for the business, with several corporate functions retooled to support a headcount that's quadrupled in the past year.

True to our DNA, we also kept innovating. Ship Week returned in January, bringing together our global team to dream, build, and ship. Ten new tools and product ideas emerged, with two already live and five more on the roadmap.

We continued to earn recognition:

- I was named Unmade's CEO of the Year and ranked in Australia's Top 100 Young Entrepreneurs
- Serenade received a Music Week Award nomination
- Concrete Playground was shortlisted for Best Partnership at Festival of Media APAC

On the product front:

- Serenade launched a Mother's Day campaign with Jimmy Barnes and contributed to a UK #1 for The Lottery Winners
- Vinyl.com partnered with Suitcase Records for a Superjesus release that reached #8 on the ARIA Vinyl Chart
- Vampr expanded its Pro analytics offering
- Jaxsta posted its best revenue month of the year in March

In March, our executive team also headed to SXSW in Austin - an incredible opportunity to strengthen global industry connections and share our vision on the world stage. The conference, owned by Penske Media Corporation (PMC), also gave us valuable face time with our long-term partners at PMC following the signing of a new multi-year agreement - securing Vinyl Media's exclusive license to represent Rolling Stone magazine in Australia and New Zealand.

Cash receipts totalled $3.2M for the quarter, with an additional $2.7M in receivables. While down from Q2's seasonal high, this figure reflects underlying strength. Moreover, R&D incentives were received during the period and option conversions expected early in Q4 will further bolster our cash position.

Looking Forward: Building the Next Generation of Publishing

The strategic reset we signalled in Q2 is now underway. While we continue optimising our cost base and consolidating teams, our next frontier is AI.

We are developing a suite of AI-driven publishing tools designed to multiply content output while supporting our journalists and editors. This initiative aims to:

- Increase margin across our media portfolio
- Supercharge syndication and international licensing
- Drastically lower the cost of customer acquisition
- Position Vinyl Media as a next-gen publisher

This won't happen overnight, but we are investing heavily in the foundational systems required to scale. The journey to profitability remains our priority, and we remain confident in hitting breakeven during the first half of FY 2026.

Thank you for your continued belief in our mission. The best is yet to come.

Regards,

Josh Simons - Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director

Quarterly Overview

- SXSW participation and leadership visibility

Financial Snapshot

- $3.2M in cash receipts
- ~$2.7M additional receivables over payables
- $3.3M net cash outflows from operations, primarily tied to:
 - Seasonal timing of media collections
 - One-month contribution from Concrete Playground
 - Costs related to organisational restructure

Outlook

- Option conversions expected to deliver ~$1.2M in Q4
- Cost efficiencies to take fuller effect in Q4 and into FY26
- Business remains on track to achieve breakeven in H1 FY26

Closing Thoughts

This was a quarter about laying track, not waving flags. And that's exactly what we needed. With our business architecture in place, our brands performing, and a bold AI strategy in motion, the path to sustainable growth is clearer than ever.

Summary of Cash Position and Expenditure

As at 31 March 2025

Cash Position

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $2.932 million.

The changes in the cash position included the retail component of the Entitlements Offer which closed in January ($3.3 million gross proceeds).

Operating Cash Flow

Net operating cash outflow was $3.343 million, a 124% increase from the prior quarter's burn of $1.566 million.

The increase was primarily driven by:

- Lower sales during the March quarter due to:
 - Seasonal slowdown in the Media business
 - Post-holiday decline in e-commerce sales
- Back ended quarter sales which left the Company with receivables exceeding payables by $2.659 million
- Cash costs for some June quarter events were outlaid in Q3

Cash Flow from Customers

Cash inflows from customers declined by $2.097 million to $3.236 million (-39% QoQ), reflecting:

- March quarter seasonality in the Media segment
- Reduced post-Christmas sales in the e-commerce segment

Operating Expenditures

- Staff costs remained stable, offsetting cost reductions with added headcount from acquisitions
- Product and platform costs increased $0.883 million, due to:
 - Upfront costs for upcoming events (to be billed in later periods)
 - Reallocation of event-related marketing to product costs
 - Lower revenues in both Media and e-commerce segments
- R&D costs fell by $62K, though actual spend was steady due to timing of integration-related billings
- Office space costs decreased by $18K, reflecting team integration efficiencies
- Sales and marketing costs reduced by $211K, due to lower e-commerce ad spend post-peak season

- General and administrative expenses dropped by $458K, driven by reduced admin functions and timing of legal bills

Overall, total operating costs were $150K lower than the previous quarter.

Working Capital and Related Party Payments

Operating activities were funded through existing working capital reserves.

Payments to related parties were limited to $72,476 in salary to the executive director. No other related party or associate payments were made.

- 8.5 Estimated quarters of funding available (Item 8.4 divided by Item 8.1) 0.88

Note: if the entity has reported positive net operating cash flows in item 1.9, answer item 8.5 as "N/A". Otherwise, a figure for the estimated quarters of funding available must be included in item 8.5.

- 8.6 If Item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, please provide answers to the following questions:

1. Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not?

Answer: No, we have three factors affecting the March quarter that do not apply to the next quarters. First of all, our Media business has a seasonal low in the March quarter, pushing our collections into the June quarter. We are exiting the quarter with an excess working capital of $2.659M. Second, we acquired Concrete Playground during the quarter and its results only counted for one month, the next quarter will have the impact of a full quarter. Lastly, as part of bringing all companies together, the Company is undergoing some cost reductions from the efficiencies gained which will have a partial impact in the June quarter and more fully in the September quarter.

2. Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?

Answer: The Company will be receiving approximately $1.2M via the exercise of options that expire this quarter, bolstering the cash reserves further.

3. Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer: Yes, the additional cash reserves from the option exercise, plus the additional $2.6M in working capital significantly improve our cash for operations, and moving to a better seasonal performance in the June quarter, plus Concrete results will reduce operating cash flows considerably and maintain cash reserves at compliant levels.

Note: where item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.6.1, 8.6.2 and 8.6.3 above must be answered.
