About Terra Critical Minerals

Terra Critical Minerals is a mineral exploration company listed on the ASX (code T92) focused on Critical Minerals in the low-risk jurisdictions of Australia and North America.

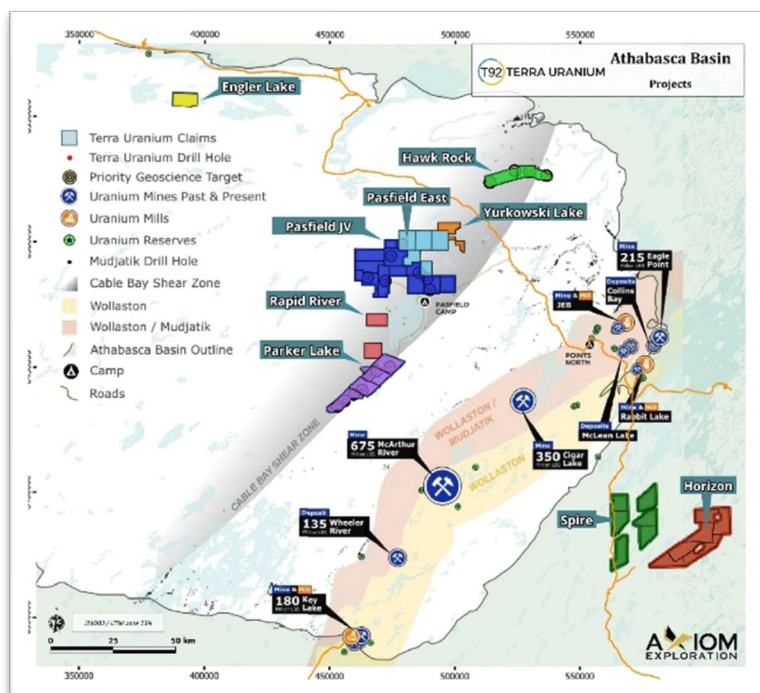

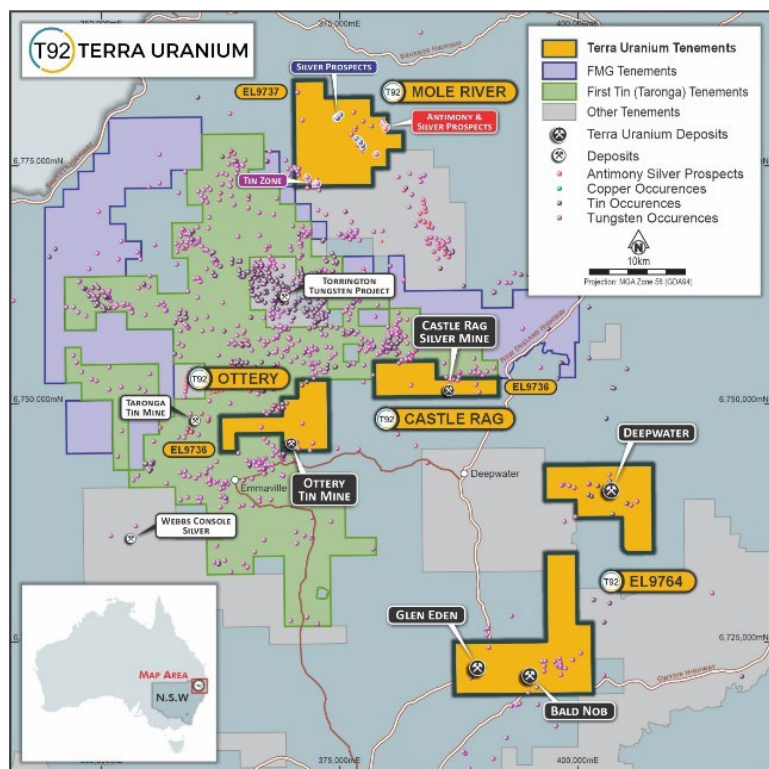

The Australian operations are focused on tin, silver and gold in the New England area of NSW. The core projects are the historic Ottery tin and precious metals mine and the Glen Eden tungsten tin molybdenum advanced exploration project between Tenterfield and Glen Innes, NSW.

The Canadian operations are strategically positioned in the Athabasca Basin, Canada - a premium uranium province hosting the world's largest and highest-grade uranium deposits. Canada is a politically stable jurisdiction with established access to global markets. Using the very best people available and leveraging our in-depth knowledge of the Basin's structures and deposits we are targeting major discoveries under cover that are close to existing production infrastructure. The Company is led by a Board and Management with considerable experience in Uranium. Our uranium exploration team is based locally in Saskatoon, Canada.

The Company holds a 100% interest in the Engler Lake, HawkRock, Parker Lake, Parker east, Rapid River, and Yurkowski Lake Projects located in the Cable Bay Shear Zone (CBSZ) on the eastern side of the Athabasca Basin, Saskatchewan, Canada. ATHA Energy Corp. have signed option Agreements to earn up to 60% of the Pasfield Project and for T92 to earn up to 70% of the Spire & Horizon Projects to the SE of the Athabasca Basin. The Projects are all close to multiple operating large uranium mills, mines and known deposits.

There is good access and logistics support in this very activate uranium exploration and production province. A main road passing between the HawkRock and Pasfield Lake Projects and to the immediate west of the Spire Project with minor road access to Pasfield Lake and the T92 operational base there. The regional prime logistics base is Points North located about 50km east of the CBSZ Projects, as well as a high voltage transmission line 30 km away and Uranium Mills to the east.

The company is listed on the ASX under code T92.

Chairman Letter to Shareholders

As I reflect on the past year, it's clear that Terra Critical Minerals (formerly Terra Uranium) ("Terra" ASX code: T92) has entered a new phase with its change in name reflecting its positioning itself to become a market leader across the global critical mineral sector.

This year has been one of expansion. We have acquired a significant Tungsten, Tin, Molybdenum in the New England region of New South Wales, entered in agreements with Atha Energy Corp. to drill our Uranium targets at Pasfield Lake and Axiom Exploration Group to support field operations in Canada and to source Rare Earth Elements (REE) and Antimony assets across the USA.

We have retained our significant holdings in the Athabasca Basin, where we've made further progress on our core Projects - HawkRock, Pasfield, and Parker. These have moved from conceptual targets to 18 drill-ready zones.

The uranium market has shifted significantly, with prices surging to levels not seen in over a decade. This rise is fueled by the growing global recognition that nuclear energy is essential for achieving a low-carbon future, particularly as industries demand reliable, high-output power sources. The surge in energy needs – driven not only by traditional industries but also by the expanding digital economy, underscores the importance of nuclear power in ensuring energy security and sustainability. As nations strive to secure stable, long-term energy solutions, Terra is strategically positioned to provide the resources necessary for this transition. Our projects are located in some of the world's most prolific uranium territories.

Looking ahead to 2026, we are ready to take our Projects to the next level. Our field programs will be focused on drill success.

Thank you for being part of Terra's story. The best is yet to come.

Likely developments and expected results of operations

There are no other likely developments that have not been disclosed elsewhere in this report that would impact the results of the consolidated entity.

Risks and uncertainties

The consolidated entity is subject to general risks as well as risks that are specific to the consolidated entity and the consolidated entity's business activities. The following is a list of risks which the Directors believe are or potentially will be material to the consolidated entity's business, however, this is not a complete list of all risks that the consolidated entity is or may be subject to.

Company specific risks

Future funding requirements and the ability to access debt and equity markets

The Company's capital requirements depend on numerous factors and the Company may require additional debt or equity financing in the future to maintain or grow its business in addition to funds raised under the Offer. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to secure additional capital from debt or equity financing on favourable terms or at all. The Company may also seek to raise funds through joint ventures, production sharing arrangements or other means. If the Company is unable to raise additional capital if and when required, this could delay, suspend or reduce the scope of the Company's business operations (including scaling back exploration programs) and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's operating and financial performance. Any additional equity financing may result in dilution for some or all Shareholders, and debt financing, if available, may involve restrictive covenants which limit operations and business strategy.

Exploration and operations

The Claims forming the Canadian Projects are at an early-stage of exploration, and prospective investors should understand that mineral exploration and development are speculative and high-risk undertakings that may be impeded by circumstances beyond the control of the Company. Similarly, the permits acquired in the Ottery Tin Mines project are early stage exploration projects. Success in this process involves, among other things:

- * discovery and proving-up, or acquiring, an economically recoverable resource or reserve;
- * access to adequate capital throughout the discovery and project development phases;
- * securing and maintaining title to mineral projects;
- * obtaining required development consents and approvals necessary for the mineral exploration, development and production phases; and
- accessing the necessary experienced operational staff, the applicable financial management and recruiting skilled contractors, consultants and employees.

There can be no assurance that future exploration and development of the Projects, or any other mineral projects that may be acquired in the future, will result in the discovery of an economic resource. Even if an apparently viable resource is identified, there is no guarantee that it can be economically exploited. The future exploration and development activities of the Company may be affected by a range of factors including geological conditions, limitations on activities due to seasonal weather patterns or adverse weather conditions, unanticipated operational and technical difficulties, difficulties in commissioning and operating plant and equipment, mechanical failure or plant breakdown, unanticipated metallurgical problems which may affect extraction costs, industrial and environmental accidents, industrial disputes, unexpected shortages and increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant, equipment and staff, native title process and Aboriginal rights and title, including First Nations and Métis communities, and related consultation issues, changing government regulations and many other factors beyond the control of the Company. The success of the Company will also depend upon the Company being able to maintain title to the Claims forming the Projects, or any other mineral projects that may be acquired in the future, and obtaining all required approvals for their contemplated activities. In the event that exploration programs prove to be unsuccessful this could lead to a diminution in the value of the Projects, a reduction in the cash reserves of the Company and possible relinquishment of one or more of the Claims forming the Projects.

Title to mineral properties

The acquisition of title to mineral properties is a very detailed and time-consuming process. The Claims and other mineral properties that may be acquired in the future and T92's ownership interests may be affected by prior unregistered agreements or interests or undetected defects in title, such as the reduction in size of the mineral titles and other third party claims. Mineral properties sometimes contain claims or transfer histories that examiners cannot verify.

A successful claim that T92 does not have title to any of its mineral properties could result in T92 losing any rights to explore, develop and mine any minerals on that property, without compensation for its prior expenditures relating to such property, or might require T92 to compensate other third-parties. In addition, in any such case, the investigation and resolution of title issues would likely divert management's time from ongoing exploration and development programs. Although the Company is satisfied that it has taken reasonable measures to ensure good and proper title to the Claims, this should not be construed as a guarantee of title or that title to the Claims or other mineral properties acquired in the future will not be challenged or impaired.

Maintenance of the Group's interests in permits and claims is subject to ongoing compliance with the terms of the permits and claims, and with the applicable statutes and regulations governing them. This includes meeting exploration expenditure requirements set out by local regulations attached to the permits and claims. Should the Group not meet the obligations there is a risk that the permits and claims could lapse or be cancelled.

Permits, leases, licences and approvals

Permits, leases, licences and approvals are required from a variety of governmental and nongovernmental authorities at various stages of exploration and development. There can be no assurance that the various permits, leases, licences and approvals required for T92 to carry out exploration, development and mining operations on its Projects will be obtained on reasonable terms or at all or, if obtained, will not be cancelled or renewed upon expiry in the future. In addition, there is no assurance that such permits, leases, licences and approvals will not contain terms and provisions which may adversely affect T92's exploration and development activities. Delays may occur in obtaining necessary renewals or modifications of permits, leases, licences and approvals for existing or future operations and activities, or additional or amended permits, leases, licences and approvals associated with new legislation. Such permits, leases, licences and approvals are subject to changes in regulations and in various operating circumstances. Delay or a failure to obtain required permits, leases, licences and approvals may materially affect T92's business and prospects.

Renewal

The Claims are subject to periodic renewal. The renewal of the term of the Claims is subject to compliance with applicable mining legislation and regulations and the discretion of the relevant mining authority. Renewal conditions may include increased expenditure and work commitments or compulsory relinquishment of areas of the Claims. The imposition of new conditions or the inability to meet those conditions may adversely affect the operations, financial position and/or performance of the Company. The Company considers the likelihood of tenure forfeiture to be low given the laws and regulations governing exploration in Saskatchewan and the ongoing expenditure budgeted for by the Company. However, the consequence of forfeiture or involuntary surrender of a granted mineral claim for reasons beyond the control of the Company could be significant.

Industry specific risks

Alternative energy sources for uranium

The market price of T92's securities may be expected to exhibit some correlation with uranium price. Uranium is used primarily as a fuel source for electricity generation. Other sources of energy include oil, natural gas, coal and hydro-electricity. Factors that influence the decision of power producers to choose uranium rather than other fuels include political, technological, environmental and cost considerations (both locally and globally). While these factors, in the past, have impacted negatively on the growth of the uranium industry, recent concerns in relation to carbon-based emissions have strengthened the case for the use of uranium.

Environmental

The operations and proposed activities of the Company are subject to substantial laws and regulations (specifically, under Canadian federal, provincial and local laws) concerning environmental matters. As with most exploration projects and mining operations, the Company's activities are expected to have an impact on the environment, particularly if advanced exploration or mine development proceeds. The development of a project involving uranium is a sensitive activity. It is the Company's intention to conduct its activities to the highest standard of environmental obligation, including compliance with all environmental laws. Mining operations have inherent risks and liabilities associated with safety and damage to the environment and the disposal of waste products occurring as a result of mineral exploration and production. The occurrence of any such safety or environmental incident could delay production or increase production costs. Events, such as unpredictable rainfall or bushfires may impact on the Company's ongoing compliance with environmental legislation, regulations and licences. Significant liabilities could be imposed on the Company for damages, clean up costs or penalties in the event of certain discharges into the environment, environmental damage caused by previous operations or non-compliance with environmental laws or regulations. Approvals are required for land clearing and for ground disturbing activities. Delays in obtaining or failure to obtain such approvals can result in the delay to anticipated exploration programs or mining activities or could have a material adverse impact on the Company exploring and developing a project. The cost and complexity of complying with the applicable environmental laws and regulations and future permitting as may be required may limit the Company from being able to develop potentially economically viable mineral deposits.

Regulatory compliance

The company's operating activities are subject to extensive laws and regulations relating to numerous matters including resource licence consent, environmental compliance and rehabilitation, taxation, employee relations, health and worker safety, waste disposal, protection of the environment, native title and indigenous heritage matters, protection of endangered and protected species and other matters. The company requires permits from regulatory authorities to authorise the company's operations. These permits relate to exploration, development, production and rehabilitation activities. While the company believes that it will operate in substantial compliance with all material current laws and regulations, agreements or changes in their enforcement or regulatory interpretation could result in changes in legal requirements or in the terms of existing permits and agreements applicable to the company or its properties, which could have a material adverse impact on the company's current operations or planned activities. Obtaining necessary permits can be a time-consuming process and there is a risk that company will not obtain these permits on acceptable terms, in a timely manner or at all. The costs and delays associated with obtaining necessary permits and complying with these permits and applicable laws and regulations could materially delay or restrict the company from proceeding with the development of a project or the operation or development of a mine. Any failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations or permits, even if inadvertent, could result in material fines, penalties or other liabilities. In extreme cases, failure could result in suspension of the company's activities or forfeiture of one or more of the tenements, the subject of the Projects.

Climate

There are a number of climate-related factors that may affect the operations and proposed activities of the company. The climate change risks particularly attributable to the company include:

- (a) the emergence of new or expanded regulations associated with the transitioning to a lower-carbon economy and market changes related to climate change mitigation. The company may be impacted by changes to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, or by specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage. These examples sit amongst an array of possible restraints on industry that may further impact the company and its business viability. While the company will endeavour to manage these risks and limit any consequential impacts, there can be no guarantee that the company will not be impacted by these occurrences; and
- (b) climate change may cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by the company, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns and incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate patterns. All these risks associated with climate change may significantly change the industry in which the company operates.

Geopolitical risks

The Group operates in two jurisdictions globally, and is operating in an industry that is reliant on global economics and impacted significantly by global political policy. The current geopolitical situation is growing more volatile and the policies around uranium remain subject to controversy and debate. Accordingly, the Group is exposed to the risk that uranium as a source of energy is subject to political policy that limits access, and the supply. There are also risks that government policy may impact the processing of uranium, and the control of permits to explore and research uranium, and even impact the availability of funding for the industry.

Environmental regulation

The Group is aware of its environmental obligations with regards to its exploration activities and ensure that it complies with all regulations when carrying out any exploration work. The directors of the Group are not aware of any breach of environmental regulations for the year under review.

Remuneration report (audited)

The remuneration report details the key management personnel remuneration arrangements for the Group, in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and its Regulations.

Key management personnel are those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the entity, directly or indirectly, including all directors.

The remuneration report is set out under the following main headings:

- Principles used to determine the nature and amount of remuneration
- Details of remuneration
- Service agreements
- Share-based compensation
- Additional disclosures relating to key management personnel

Principles used to determine the nature and amount of remuneration

The objective of the Group's executive reward framework is to ensure reward for performance is competitive and appropriate for the results delivered. The framework aligns executive reward with the achievement of strategic objectives and the creation of value for shareholders, and it is considered to conform to the market best practice for the delivery of reward. The Board of Directors ('the Board') ensures that executive reward satisfies the following key criteria for good reward governance practices:

- competitiveness and reasonableness
- acceptability to shareholders
- performance linkage / alignment of executive compensation
- transparency

The Board is responsible for determining and reviewing remuneration arrangements for its directors and executives. The performance of the Group depends on the quality of its directors and executives. The remuneration philosophy is to attract, motivate and retain high performance and high quality personnel.

The Board has structured an executive remuneration framework that is market competitive and complementary to the reward strategy of the Group.

The reward framework is designed to align executive reward to shareholders' interests. The Board have considered that it should seek to enhance shareholders' interests by:

- having economic profit as a core component of plan design
- focusing on sustained growth in shareholder wealth, consisting of dividends and growth in share price, and delivering constant or increasing return on assets as well as focusing the executive on key non-financial drivers of value
- attracting and retaining high calibre executives

Additionally, the reward framework should seek to enhance executives' interests by:

- rewarding capability and experience
- reflecting competitive reward for contribution to growth in shareholder wealth
- providing a clear structure for earning rewards

In accordance with best practice corporate governance, the structure of non-executive director and executive director remuneration is separate.

All remuneration paid to directors and executives is valued at the cost to the Company and expensed.

Non-executive directors remuneration

Fees and payments to non-executive directors reflect the demands and responsibilities of their role. Non-executive directors' fees and payments are reviewed annually by the Board. The Board may, from time to time, receive advice from independent remuneration consultants to ensure non-executive directors' fees and payments are appropriate and in line with the market. The chairman's fees are determined independently to the fees of other non-executive directors based on comparative roles in the external market. The chairman is not present at any discussions relating to the determination of his own remuneration.

The Company's constitution provides that the remuneration of non-executive Directors will be not more than the aggregate fixed sum determined by a general meeting. The aggregate remuneration for non-executive Directors is $300,000 per annum although may be varied by ordinary resolution of the Shareholders in general meeting.

The remuneration of any executive director that may be appointed to the Board will be fixed by the Board and may be paid by way of fixed salary or consultancy fee.

Executive remuneration

The Group aims to reward executives based on their position and responsibility, with a level and mix of remuneration which has both fixed and variable components.

The executive remuneration and reward framework has four components:

- base pay and non-monetary benefits
- short-term performance incentives
- share-based payments
- other remuneration such as superannuation and long service leave

The combination of these comprises the executive's total remuneration.

Fixed remuneration, consisting of base salary, superannuation and non-monetary benefits, are reviewed annually by the Board based on individual and business unit performance, the overall performance of the Group and comparable market remunerations.

Executives may receive their fixed remuneration in the form of cash or other fringe benefits (for example motor vehicle benefits) where it does not create any additional costs to the Group and provides additional value to the executive.

The short-term incentives ('STI') program is designed to align the targets of the business units with the performance hurdles of executives. STI payments are granted to executives based on specific annual targets and key performance indicators ('KPI's') being achieved. KPI's include profit contribution, customer satisfaction, leadership contribution and product management.

The long-term incentives ('LTI') include long service leave and share-based payments. Shares are awarded to executives over a period of three years based on long-term incentive measures. These include increase in shareholders value relative to the entire market and the increase compared to the Group's direct competitors.

Use of remuneration consultants

No remuneration consultants were used during the financial year ended 30 June 2025 or for any of the preceding periods.

Voting and comments made at the Company's 2024 Annual General Meeting ('AGM')

At the 29 November 2024 AGM, 94% of the votes received supported the adoption of the remuneration report for the year ended 30 June 2024. The Company did not receive any specific feedback at the AGM regarding its remuneration practices.

Note 1. Material accounting policy information

The accounting policies that are material to the Group are set out either in the respective notes or below. The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year, unless otherwise stated.

New or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations adopted

The Group has adopted all of the new or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board ('AASB') that are mandatory for the current reporting period.

Any new or amended Accounting Standards or Interpretations that are not yet mandatory have not been early adopted.

Going concern

As at 30 June 2025, the Group had cash or cash equivalents of $96,610 (30 June 2024: $317,453) and had a working capital deficit (being current assets less current liabilities) of $700,665 (30 June 2024: $56,234 working capital). The Group incurred a net loss for the year ended 30 June 2025 of $1,978,540 (30 June 2024: $971,986) and net cash outflows used in operating activities of $1,186,655 (30 June 2024: $1,281,697) and net cash outflows used in investing activities of $530,936 (30 June 2024: $955,397).

The ability of the Group to continue as a going concern is principally dependent upon the ability of the Group to secure funds by raising capital from equity markets and managing cash flows in line with available funds. These factors indicate a material uncertainty which may cast significant doubt as to whether the Group will continue as a going concern and therefore whether it will realise its assets and extinguish its liabilities in the normal course of business and at amounts stated in the financial report.

The financial statements have been prepared on the basis that the Group is a going concern, which contemplates the continuity of normal business activity, realisation of assets and settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business for the following reasons:

- The Group has the ability to issue additional equity securities under the Corporation Act 2001 to raise further working capital;
- The Group has the ability to curtail administrative, discretionary, exploration and overhead cash outflows as and when required.
- The Group raised an additional $864,000 before costs post year-end from sophisticated and professional investors.
- The Group has also settled a number of key management personnel liabilities via the issue of shares, and entered into payment plans with some suppliers to reduce pressure on cash flows.

The ability of the Group to continue as a going concern and to fund its operational activities is dependent on the above. Should the Group not be able to continue as a going concern, it may be required to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities other than in the ordinary course of business, and at amounts that differ from those stated in the financial statements. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or liabilities that might be necessary should the Group not continue as a going concern.

Basis of preparation

These general purpose financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board ('AASB'), as appropriate for for-profit oriented entities. These financial statements also comply with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ('IASB').

Historical cost convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Critical accounting estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements, are disclosed in note 2.

Note 1. Material accounting policy information (continued)

Flow through shares

The Company may issue flow through shares to fund a portion of its capital expenditure program. Pursuant to the terms of the flow through share agreements, the tax deductions associated with the expenditures are renounced to the subscribers. The difference between the value ascribed to flow through shares issued and the value that would have been received for shares with no tax attributes is initially recognised as a liability. When the expenditures are incurred, the liability is drawn down and recognised as other income through the profit or loss.

Exploration and evaluation assets

Exploration and evaluation expenditure in relation to separate areas of interest for which rights of tenure are current is carried forward as an asset in the statement of financial position where it is expected that the expenditure will be recovered through the successful development and exploitation of an area of interest, or by its sale; or exploration activities are continuing in an area and activities have not reached a stage which permits a reasonable estimate of the existence or otherwise of economically recoverable reserves.

Exploration and evaluation costs are capitalised as incurred. However, exploration and evaluation assets shall be assessed for impairment when facts and circumstances suggest that the carrying amount of an exploration and evaluation asset may exceed its recoverable amount. When facts and circumstances suggest that the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount, an entity shall measure, present and disclose any resulting impairment loss in accordance with AASB 136.

Where a project or an area of interest has been abandoned, the expenditure incurred thereon is written off in the year in which the decision is made.

Note 2. Critical accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts in the financial statements. Management continually evaluates its judgements and estimates in relation to assets, liabilities, contingent liabilities, revenue and expenses. Management bases its judgements, estimates and assumptions on historical experience and on other various factors, including expectations of future events, management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. The resulting accounting judgements and estimates will seldom equal the related actual results. The judgements, estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities (refer to the respective notes) within the next financial year are discussed below.

Share-based payment transactions

The Group measures the cost of equity-settled transactions with employees by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments at the date at which they are granted. The fair value is determined by using the Black-Scholes model taking into account the terms and conditions upon which the instruments were granted. The accounting estimates and assumptions relating to equity-settled share-based payments would have no impact on the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next annual reporting period but may impact profit or loss and equity.

Exploration and evaluation costs

Exploration and evaluation costs have been capitalised on the basis that the Group will commence commercial production in the future, from which time the costs will be amortised in proportion to the depletion of the mineral resources. Key judgements are applied in considering costs to be capitalised which includes determining expenditures directly related to these activities and allocating overheads between those that are expensed and capitalised. In addition, costs are only capitalised that are expected to be recovered either through successful development or sale of the relevant mining interest. Factors that could impact the future commercial production at the mine include the level of reserves and resources, future technology changes, which could impact the cost of mining, future legal changes and changes in commodity prices. To the extent that capitalised costs are determined not to be recoverable in the future, they will be written off in the period in which this determination is made.

The ultimate recoupment of capitalised expenditure in relation to each area of interest is dependent on the successful development and commercial exploitation or, alternatively, sale of the respective areas the results of which are still uncertain.

Note 2. Critical accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions (continued)

Impairment

The Group assesses impairment of exploration and evaluation assets at each reporting date by evaluating conditions specific to the Group and to the particular projects and resources that may lead to impairment. If an impairment trigger exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is determined. This involves fair value less costs of disposal or value-in-use calculations, which incorporate a number of key estimates and assumptions. In the case of exploration and evaluation assets this is often impractical, given the uncertainty of the value of the assets. During the year the Group has reviewed its assets and considers that the Farm-in arrangements as Spire and Horizon are impaired, as the Group does not intend to take up the option set out in the Option agreement.

Note 3. Operating segments

Identification of reportable operating segments

The Group is organised into one operating segment: mineral exploration in Canada. This operating segment is based on the internal reports that are reviewed and used by the Board of Directors (who are identified as the Chief Operating Decision Makers ('CODM')) in assessing performance and in determining the allocation of resources. Accordingly under the management approach outlined only one operating segment has been identified and no further disclosures are required.

The CODM reviews EBITDA (earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation). The accounting policies adopted for internal reporting to the CODM are consistent with those adopted in the financial statements.

The information reported to the CODM is on a monthly basis.

Geographical information

	Geographical non-current assets
	2025 $	2024 $
Australia	114,256	-
Canada	8,241,928	7,807,893
	8,356,184	7,807,893

The geographical non-current assets above are exclusive of, where applicable, financial instruments, deferred tax assets, post-employment benefits assets and rights under insurance contracts.

Accounting policy for operating segments

Operating segments are presented using the 'management approach', where the information presented is on the same basis as the internal reports provided to the Chief Operating Decision Makers ('CODM'). The CODM is responsible for the allocation of resources to operating segments and assessing their performance.

During the year the Company acquired the share capital of LCT Metals Pty Ltd ("LCT"), a company that held Exploration Permits in the New England Tin Province, New South Wales. The tenements include the Ottery Tin Mine, Castle Rag Silver Prospect and Mole River Silver and Tin Project.

The terms of the acquisition were as follows:

Note 9. Exploration and evaluation (continued)

- the issue of 2,444,444 ordinary shares in the Company.
- the issue of 1,222,222 unlisted options with an expiry date of 31 December 2026 and an exercise price of $0.09.
- $40,000 in cash.

Whilst the acquisition agreement contracted the acquisition of the share capital of LCT Metals Pty Ltd, it was determined that the operations of LCT did not constitute a business as defined in AASB 3 Business Combinations. Accordingly, the acquisition has been treated as an asset purchase, with the assets identified as the identifiable net assets of LCT, including the exploration assets held by LCT. As the fair value of the exploration and evaluation assets acquired could not be reliably measured, the total consideration transferred has been allocated to the E&E assets in accordance with AASB 2 Share based payments.

In October 2024, the Company and TSXV-listed ATHA Energy Corp. (Atha) have signed option Agreements, under which ATHA has granted Terra two options that will, subject to the satisfaction of various conditions, give Terra the right (but not the obligation) to acquire up to 70% of ATHA's Spire and Horizon Uranium Exploration Projects (the "Spire and Horizon Projects") in consideration for incurring a minimum of C$4,750,000 in statutory exploration expenditures.

Farm-in the exploration and evaluation phase

The Consolidated Entity recognizes any expenses incurred under a farm-in arrangement unless the Consolidated Entity elect not to exercise its rights under the option agreement. Any cash consideration received directly from the farmee is credited against costs previously capitalised in relation to the whole interest with any excess accounted for by the farmor as a gain on disposal.

Impairment

The Group has not met the first two hurdles set out in the farm-in agreement. After considering the results of initial expenditures on the Spire and Horizon projects, and the funds available to the Group, the Board of Directors have decided to no longer fund the farm-in. Accordingly, the Group will not earn the 70% interest specified in the agreement. As there is no lower interest specified in the agreement the Board has determined that the expenditure on the earn-in has been impaired as at 30 June 2025.

The full amount of the expenditure has been impaired, and expensed in the profit and loss account. The expenditure impaired amounted to CAD $639,939.

The Company recognised the fair value of 96,094 these Options as Share issue costs during the year ended 31 December 2024.

Ordinary shares

Ordinary shares entitle the holder to participate in dividends and the proceeds on the winding up of the Company in proportion to the number of and amounts paid on the shares held. The fully paid ordinary shares have no par value and the Company does not have a limited amount of authorised capital.

On a show of hands every member present at a meeting in person or by proxy shall have one vote and upon a poll each share shall have one vote.

Share buy-back

There is no current on-market share buy-back.

Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital is to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimum capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

Capital is regarded as total equity, as recognised in the statement of financial position, plus net debt. Net debt is calculated as total borrowings less cash and cash equivalents.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the company may adjust the return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The Group would look to raise capital when an opportunity to invest in a business or company was seen as value adding relative to the current Company's share price at the time of the investment. The Group is not actively pursuing additional investments in the short term as it continues to integrate and grow its existing businesses in order to maximise synergies.

Accounting policy for issued capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

Note 13. Reserves

	Consolidated
	2025	2024

Share-based payments reserve	1,153,227	1,045,888
	1,114,680	854,666

Foreign currency reserve

The reserve is used to recognise exchange differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations to Australian dollars. It is also used to recognise gains and losses on hedges of the net investments in foreign operations.

Share-based payments reserve

The reserve is used to recognise the value of equity benefits provided to employees and directors as part of their remuneration, and other parties as part of their compensation for services.

Note 14. Dividends

There were no dividends paid, recommended or declared during the current or previous financial year.

Note 15. Financial instruments

Financial risk management objectives

The company's activities may expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign currency risk and price risk) and liquidity risk. The company's overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the financial performance of the company.

Risk management is carried out by senior finance executives ('finance') under policies approved by the Board of Directors ('the Board'). These policies include identification and analysis of the risk exposure of the Group and appropriate procedures, controls and risk limits. Finance identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks within the Group's operating units. Finance reports to the Board on a monthly basis.

Market risk

Foreign currency risk

The Group undertakes certain transactions denominated in foreign currency and is exposed to foreign currency risk through foreign exchange rate fluctuations.

The Group is exposed to foreign exchange fluctuations with respect to Australian Dollars ('A$') and Canadian Dollars ('CAD$'). The Group's financial results are reported in A$. Salaries for certain local employees in Canada may be paid in CAD. The Group's operations are in Canada and some of its payment commitments and exploration expenditures under the various agreements governing its rights are denominated in CAD$. As a result, the Group's financial position and results are impacted by the exchange rate fluctuations among A$ and CAD$. Such fluctuations may materially affect the Group's financial position and results.

The carrying amount of the Group's foreign currency denominated financial assets and financial liabilities at the reporting date were as follows:

		Assets		Liabilities
		2025	2024	2025	2024
		$	$	$	$
Consolidated

A$/CAD$	10%	6,769	6,769	(10%)	(6,769)	(6,769)

Price risk

The Group is not exposed to any significant price risk.

Liquidity risk

Vigilant liquidity risk management requires the Group to maintain sufficient liquid assets (mainly cash and cash equivalents) to be able to pay debts as and when they become due and payable.

Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares and the weighted average number of shares assumed to have been issued for no consideration in relation to dilutive potential ordinary shares.

During the year 2,000,000 options were granted to the lead manager as part of the Placement Management Fee and Capital Raising Fees. These were capitalised to share issue costs.

For the options granted during the current financial year, the valuation model inputs used to determine the fair value at the grant date, are as follows:

Grant date	Expiry date	Share price at grant date	Exercise price	Expected volatility	Dividend yield	Risk-free interest rate	Fair value at grant date
01/11/2024	01/11/2026	$0.06	$0.15	100.00%	-	4.05%	$0.020

Share-based payment expense		5,909,722		107,338

* lead manager share options were capitalised into cost of issuing equity.

** Vendor share options were capitalised into cost of exploration assets.

Accounting policy for share-based payments

Equity-settled and cash-settled share-based compensation benefits are provided to directors and employees as part of their fees and remuneration, and external service providers for goods and services provided.

Equity-settled transactions are awards of shares, or options over shares, that are provided to directors and employees in exchange for the rendering of services. Cash-settled transactions are awards of cash for the exchange of services, where the amount of cash is determined by reference to the share price.

The cost of equity-settled transactions are measured at fair value on grant date. Fair value is independently determined using either the Binomial or Black-Scholes option pricing model that takes into account the exercise price, the term of the option, the impact of dilution, the share price at grant date and expected price volatility of the underlying share, the expected dividend yield and the risk free interest rate for the term of the option, together with non-vesting conditions that do not determine whether the Group receives the services that entitle the employees to receive payment. No account is taken of any other vesting conditions.

The cost of equity-settled transactions are recognised as an expense with a corresponding increase in equity over the vesting period. The cumulative charge to profit or loss is calculated based on the grant date fair value of the award, the best estimate of the number of awards that are likely to vest and the expired portion of the vesting period. The amount recognised in profit or loss for the period is the cumulative amount calculated at each reporting date less amounts already recognised in previous periods.

The cost of cash-settled transactions is initially, and at each reporting date until vested, determined by applying the Black-Scholes option pricing model, taking into consideration the terms and conditions on which the award was granted. The cumulative charge to profit or loss until settlement of the liability is calculated as follows:

- during the vesting period, the liability at each reporting date is the fair value of the award at that date multiplied by the expired portion of the vesting period.
- from the end of the vesting period until settlement of the award, the liability is the full fair value of the liability at the reporting date.

All changes in the liability are recognised in profit or loss. The ultimate cost of cash-settled transactions is the cash paid to settle the liability.

Market conditions are taken into consideration in determining fair value. Therefore any awards subject to market conditions are considered to vest irrespective of whether or not that market condition has been met, provided all other conditions are satisfied.

If equity-settled awards are modified, as a minimum an expense is recognised as if the modification has not been made. An additional expense is recognised, over the remaining vesting period, for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based compensation benefit as at the date of modification.

If the non-vesting condition is within the control of the Group or employee, the failure to satisfy the condition is treated as a cancellation. If the condition is not within the control of the Group or employee and is not satisfied during the vesting period, any remaining expense for the award is recognised over the remaining vesting period, unless the award is forfeited.

If equity-settled awards are cancelled, it is treated as if it has vested on the date of cancellation, and any remaining expense is recognised immediately. If a new replacement award is substituted for the cancelled award, the cancelled and new award is treated as if they were a modification.
