Incident at Logan complex

Coronado Global Resources Inc. (ASX: CRN) ("Coronado" or the "Company") advises that a fatality, involving one of its employees, occurred at its Logan mining complex in West Virginia, United States, on the morning of Thursday December 18, 2025 (US Eastern time).

Coronado is deeply saddened by this tragic event and is working with the appropriate authorities to understand the cause of the incident. Coronado extends its deepest sympathies and sincere condolences to the family, friends, and colleagues of the individual.

Operations at the Lower War Eagle mine where the incident occurred have been temporarily suspended to allow the necessary investigations to be carried out. At this time, the Company is focused on supporting the family of the employee and the other workers at Logan. Counselling services are being made available to all employees.

Coronado does not expect the cessation of mining activities to materially impact its operations as a whole.

This announcement was authorised for release in accordance with the Disclosure Policy of Coronado Global Resources Inc.
